Master Plan will be available for inspection and discussion

Hunter dies of heart attack

A West Linn man, hunting the Madison Butte area near Heppner, died Nov. 16 of a heart attack according to Oregon State Police Officer Carl Martin.

According to Martin, Dowdy was hunting with a friend, Rick Lutz of Hubbard. Dowdy, had killed an elk earlier in the day and Lutz was helping him pack it out when Dowdy collapsed in camp around noon.
OSP game cadet Larry Purdy, who happened on the scene, Lutz and other hunters, performed CPR on Dowdy until an ambulance arrived. Heppner EMT Carl Lauritsen continued CPR and oxygen in the ambulance while Dowdy was being transported to Pioneer Memorial Hospital. Continued efforts to revive Dowdy by Dr. Kirby Flanagan at PMH failed and Dowdy died about 3:30 p.m., said Martin.

BMCC knitting class offered

A special Blue Mountain Community College knitting class will be offered starting November 25. The emphasis of the four-week class will be knitting a Christmas stocking. Other knitting projects are welcome.

Materials to bring to the first class are size 6 knitting needles (either two straight or four double pointed), a 3 1/2 oz. skein of yarn and one or two contrasting colors.

Instructor Sandra Van Liew will have several patterns available.

The class will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Heppner St. Pat's Senior Citizen Center.

For more information call BMCC coordinator Sue Warren at 422-7040 or Van Liew at 676-5050. Tuition is $15.

Heppner Elementary Ponies Pride carnival this Saturday

Heppner Elementary Parents club annual fundraiser carnival will be held Saturday, November 23 at the Morrow County Fairgrounds in Heppner, 6-8 p.m.

This year's Ponies Pride Carnival will feature face painting, goldfish toss, a fish pond, basketball shoot, balloon darts, cork guns and many more along with concessions from the kitchen.

Tickets may be purchased for 25c. Each game requires one ticket. Proceeds from the carnival benefit kindergarten through eighth grade at Heppner Elementary school.

This is the parents club only fund raiser for the year.

HIT group to plan 1992 performances

The Heppner Intergenerational Theatre Group will meet in the sitting room of the Heppner St. Patrick's Senior Center Sunday, Nov. 24 at 2 p.m. to plan performances for 1992.

"We want all ages who are interested to join us," said Jane Rawlins, HIT organizer. "For every performer on stage, three or more are needed on the production crew to do set construction and decoration, lights, properties, costumes, makeup publicity, box office, ushering, programs and many other facets of theatre arts. Our goal is to make this a fun part of living here."

North Lex Livestock club to meet

By Anne Morter

The North Lex Livestock 4-H club will hold its first meeting of the year on Sunday, November 24 at 2 p.m. at the Lexington School district office. The club is open to young people from fourth through 12th grade interested in raising a market hog, lamb, or steer as a 4-H project.

Jim Swanson, of Ione, with help from Donna Rietmann, will lead the group, which had been guided by Geri Grieb for the past five years. The leaders would also encourage any potential adult helpers to attend.

Hope, Valby church schedule services

The adult Bible class of Valby Lutheran Church will meet Sunday, November 24 at 8:15 a.m. to continue its study of the Book of Revelation. Worship will be at 9 a.m. Pastor Hoobing will preach on the theme of "What Kind of King is Jesus" The sermon will be based on a scripture reading from St. John, chapter 18, verses 33-37.
Sunday school classes at Hope will begin at 9:30 a.m. with worship service following at 11 a.m.

Thanksgiving service will be held Wednesday evening November 27 at 7:30 p.m. at Hope Lutheran church. A Thursday morning service will be held at Valby at 9:30 a.m. Pastor Hoobing will deliver a message based on scripture reading of Philipians 4:6-20. Offerings will go to the work of the Neighborhood Center of South Morrow County.

ASC election ballots to be mailed

The slate of nominees for the upcoming Agriculture Stabilization Conservation committee election has been developed, R.H. Matthews, CED, announced.

Morrow County candidates are W. Ronald Becket, and John Kilkenny, Heppner, and Richard A. Peterson, Ione.

The ASC committee election will be conducted by mail from Friday, November 22, until Monday, December 2. Voters may also get ballots at the county ASCS office.

Eligible ASC voters will receive a secret ballot in the mail with instructions on how to vote for candidate of their choice and return the ballot to the county ASCS office.

ASCs encourages nominations of qualified women and minorities because historically they have not been well represented on ASC committees, said an ASCS spokesperson.

Participation in ASC elections is open to all farmers regardless of race, religion, sex, color, age, handicap, or national origin.

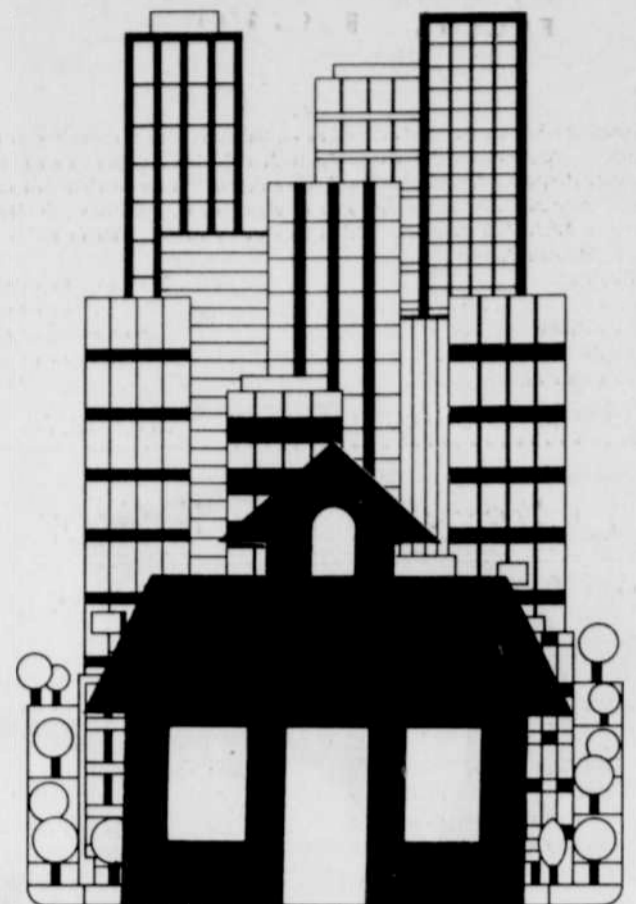

Ione High to present play

Ione High School will be presenting Agatha Christie's "Ten Little Indians" or "And Then There Were None" on Saturday, Nov. 23 at 6 p.m. and Sunday, Nov. 24 at 2 p.m. in the Ione High School Cafeteria. The production originally scheduled November 22 and 23 was changed at the last minute due to changes in the cast.

Find out what happens when Mike Garret as Philip Lombard the adventurer, and the rest of the cast answer the invitations of Mr. and Mrs. U.N. Owens to come to Indian Island for a summer vacation. Other cast members include: Kristine Bedortha as Vera Claythorn the secretary, Heidi Nelson as Judge Wargrave, Erika Bergstrom as Wilma Blore, Rodney Ehrmantraut as Dr. Armstrong, Jackie Bergstrom as Emily Brent, Justin Miller as Tom Rogers, Heidi Orem as Ethel Rogers, Jessica Stefani as Gen. MacKenzie, Steve Allen as Anthony Marston and Michelle Kandle as Mable Narracott.

"Ten Little Indians" has humor, mystery, murder and a twist. It is Agatha Christie at her best. We hope that you will come and enjoy our performance...the cast is 'dying' to see you there," said a school spokesperson.
