Both Heppner teams came up short this weekend at the Mac-Hi Tournament with the Mustangs taking second place and the Fillies third.

The girls opened the tournament Friday, Dec. 13, against host Mac-Hi hoping for a win to turn around what has been an average season so far. The Fillies jumped out of the gates early and led at the end of the first quarter, 13-6. In the second quarter the Fillies fell apart and were outscored 15-4. By halftime, however, they only trailed 21-17.

The Fillies were behind at one point of the game by 10 points but stormed back, sparked by great defense. The Fillies kept chipping away at the lead but fell short, losing 33-31. Heppner allowed only two points in the fourth quarter but managed to shoot only 25 percent the whole game. Holly Eckman led the Fillies with 11 points.

The Fillies would face Enterprise, who lost earlier to Dayton, 55-47, on Saturday.

The Fillies responded to their loss to Mac-Hi on Saturday with an impressive win against Enterprise to start the tournament's second day. Led by Holly Eckman, who scored 23 points and was named to the all tournament team, the Fillies shot an unbelievable 50 percent from the floor. Helped by the Savages' poor shooting from the line, the Fillies went on to post an impressive victory winning 60-46 and a third place spot.

BMCC offers EMT courses

Firefighters and emergency medical service professionals are invited to take part in two classes offered by Blue Mountain Community College through the new Oregon satellite system. The classes are live and will originate from either Portland or Chemeketa Community College. These interactive courses allow participants to have verbal as well as visual contact with the instructor.

Fire Codes and Ordinances, offered through Chemeketa, will begin January 6. The course will involve a study of the uniform fire code, state fire marshal fire safety regulations and related Oregon revised statutes NFPA and other codes relating to fire prevention and life safety. Cost of the course is $66.

Emergency Pediatric Care for EMT I and II, offered through Portland Community College and Oregon Trauma Research and Education Foundation, will begin February 11. The course will cover different issues in the emergency care of newborns. The course is approved for 16 hours of continuing education credit by Oregon Health Division, Emergency Medical Service section. Cost of the course is $100.

For more information on either course, or to register contact the BMCC Continuing Education Department at 276-1260, ext. 290.

Walters place in surfing championship

Ammon and Aaron Walters, 16 year old twin sons of Meredith (Thomson) and Tom Walters of Pismo Beach, CA, recently placed in the top 12 finalists in the national U.S. Amateur Surfing Championship, Body Board Division contest at Corpus Christi, Texas. They placed fourth and seventh respectively. Contestants came from the East coast, West Coast, Gulf Coast and Hawaii.

The boys are the grandsons of Jim and Madge Thomson of Heppner.

Heppner Mustangs beat Mac-Hi 59-55

Heppner and Enterprise fight for rebound

The Mustangs went into the Mac-Hi Christmas Tournament Dec. 13 and 14 with an undefeated record and a three-game winning streak. They didn't disappoint, with a 59-55 win over host Mac-Hi.

The Mustangs jumped to an early and big lead with a 44-26 halftime score. The game looked like a blowout but the Mustangs eventually saw themselves fighting for their lead they had built. The Pioneers outscored the Mustangs 20-8, in the third quarter and 9-7 in the fourth, but the Mustangs held on for the win and a spot in the finals against Enterprise, who had earlier beat Dayton, 71-40.

Jason Britt led the Mustangs with 14 points and Rick Koffler was a close second with 13. The Mustangs didn't fare quite as well as the Fillies did in their fight for the top spot as they lost to Enterprise, 85-56. Heppner found themselves matched up to one of the tallest teams in the state, led by Nathan Locke, a 6'9" senior. Enterprise jumped out to an early lead and never looked back. The Mustangs played with pride but Enterprises size advantage was too much.

Ryan Currin led the Mustangs with 13 points followed by Len Britner who had nine.

Sophomore Rick Koffler was named to the all tournament team.

Other scores on the day were Dayton, 48, Mac-Hi, 36 in the girls' final and Dayton, 53, Mac-Hi, 44 in the boys' consolation round.
