Adult volleyball to be formed

Adults 18 years or older who are interested in playing volleyball for fun and exercise should call Sherry Ewing, 676-9119 or Bryan Traylor, 676-9405 evenings. Interested persons should call before Feb. 15 so that coordinators may set a day and time most convenient for everyone.

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

The Morrow County Senior Transportation Committee met at the senior center in Heppner Jan. 28. There were 20 people present. The Stokes Landing bus brought seniors from Irrigon and Boardman. Lunch was prepared by Marilyn Bergstrom assisted by her mother Ruth and brother Gerald.

The Senior Focus group met in the senior center sitting room while the transportation committee was meeting in the dining room. Chairpersons Stan Hoobing and Grace Drake gave a report on the county health meeting.

One hundred nineteen people attended the dinner January 29. Two meals were taken out. Anna Ball won the meal ticket and Truman Messenger the door prize. Evelyn Gulick of Hermiston received the guest prize. Eva Griffith was presented with the birthday gift. Members of the Episcopal Church served.

The dinner menu for February 12, the Valentine's dinner, will be turkey strata, stewed tomatoes, applesauce, salad and rolls. Serving will be done by members of the First Christian Church.

The quilt made by Quilters and Company is being displayed at the Senior Center. Tickets are available in the office. Proceeds will help support the senior center. The drawing will be held during the St. Patrick's celebration March 13, 14 and 15. St. Pat's committees have been formed. Those wishing to help may contact Daisy Collins 676-9947 for the breakfast, Helen Gilliam 676-5336 for soup and roll lunch and Irene Schroeder 676-9132 to either donate pies or help serve.

Merri Reamer, Morrow County social worker will be on vacation from Feb. 11-18.

Dates to remember: Willoughby hearing aid Friday, Feb. 7, 9 a.m. to noon; Mondays quilting 1-4 p.m.; Tuesday and Thursdays, exercise 10-10:30 a.m.; Wednesday, dinner; Friday Bible study 10:30 a.m.

Mustangs beat Wahtonka for 4th in CBC action

Heppner's Tony Burt (45) tries for blocked shot.

By Jeremy Maddern

Saturday, Feb. 1 the Mustangs traveled to The Dalles to take on the Wahtonka Eagles team, who has not won a game all year. The Eagles gave the Mustangs some problems, though, and fared a lot better than their first meeting, losing by only five, 59-54.

The Mustangs jumped out to an early seven point lead and looked like they were well on their way to another blowout. The Eagles paced the Mustangs in the second quarter and only trailed 31-24 at the half, to the Mustangs' surprise. The Mustangs seemed to be having problems shooting the ball in the second half but still managed to outscore the Eagles in the third quarter to increase their lead to 10 going into the fourth quarter.

Heppner came unglued and saw themselves fighting to keep their lead in the fourth. The Eagles kept chipping away at a 17 point lead the Mustangs had built with a swarming press mainly because of Mustang turnovers. The Eagles came within two at one point of the game but could not overcome an obvious superior team. The final score was Heppner 59, Wahtonka 54. Tony Burt and Jason Britt both led the team in scoring with 12 each and Ryan Currin also poured in 11. The Mustangs are now in fourth place in CBC action and will take on Pilot Rock this Friday, Feb. 7, in what should be an important league game.

Singspiration at Lexington Baptist

The South Morrow County Ministerial Association singspiration will be held Sunday, Feb. 9 at the Lexington Baptist Church at 7 p.m.

Individuals and groups will be able to share special numbers and those attending will bridge the denominational gaps as they sing together in praise and worship to God.

Refreshments will be served following the service. All denominations are invited to attend.

Camp Fire girls to begin candy sale

The Oregon Trail Campfire Council will be having their annual candy sale February 7 through March 7.

The Heppner campfire girls will be selling door to door and at places in the Heppner and Lexington areas. They will be offering almond roca, peppermint patties and caramel clusters at $3 a box.

Money raised will be distributed in part to support both the Heppner group and the United Way.

Anyone interested in placing an order may contact the leader, Mary VandenHaak, 676-5042.

Ruth Locust chapter to meet

Ruth Locust Chapter No. 32, Order of the Eastern Star will hold their regular stated meeting Monday, Feb. 10 at 8 p.m. at the Heppner Masonic Hall.

All members are encouraged to attend. Plans will be made for several upcoming events including district meeting, which is Wednesday, Feb. 26 at Queen Esther Chapter of Hermiston.

Members are asked to have something to share for Valentines Day or Presidents' Day. A social hour will follow the meeting.
