

Fillies lose to Weston-McEwen

By Jeremy Maddern

The Heppner Fillies met up with the Weston-McEwen Tiger Scots Friday night, Jan. 31 to settle the top spot in the Columbia Basin Conference. The Fillies were up against a team that is undefeated and have beaten every team they've met by double figures. Heppner lost by 10 points, 51-41.

The Fillies came out flat mainly because of tough defense by the Tiger Scots and trailed 15-9 at the end of the first quarter. The Fillies could not shut down senior Colby Cummings who went wild in the first half with 21 points. The Fillies shot poorly in the first half going three/16 while the Tiger Scots went 15/27 and increased their lead 35-14 at the half.

Things looked bleak for the Fillies but they came out in the second half fired up. With some great defense the Fillies held the Tiger Scot's Colby Cummings to just four points in the second half and drew closer and closer to the Tiger Scot lead. The Fillies went on an 18-6 run in the third quarter to cut the lead to 41-32 going in to the fourth and final quarter.

The Fillies got cold again and could not get any closer than six points to the lead. The final score was Weston-McEwen 51, Heppner 41.

The Fillies were at a height disadvantage the whole game and this showed as they were out-rebounded 38-19. Holly Eckman led the Fillies with 16 points and Jodi Johnston also helped the cause with nine. Colby Cummings led all scorers with 25 points.

Cards take easy win

By Anne Morter

The lone Lady Cardinals split their games this past weekend, winning an easy one at Echo Friday, Jan. 31, and losing a critical match to Condon on Saturday, Feb. 1. With their 5-2 conference record, the Lady Cards are set in the second place slot for the West Division of the Big Sky League. Their overall record is now 13-3.

Against a young Echo team, Kari Morgan poured in 22 points from the inside while Nancy Morter added 17, mostly from long distance. Morter hit three three-point goals in a row to spark the Cards in the third quarter. The starters saw action in the first and third quarter and the bench took over in the second and fourth quarter.

The Lady Cards outrebounded the Cougars, 41-24, led by Kari Morgan's 14 boards. Nancy Morter and Heidi Nelson added six each. Morter also led the team in steals with eight and two assists.

Ione had a good shooting night, hitting 23 of 56 for 41 percent. Their performance at the free throw line was meager at best. They shot just two of nine for 22 percent.

Saturday, Feb. 1 pitted the Fillies against the Wahtonka Eagles in The Dalles. What was expected to be an easy game turned into a struggle for the Fillies as they went on to beat the Eagles 53-43. The Fillies led by a slim margin of three points at the end of the first quarter. Heppner began to pull away in the second quarter but to the Eagles' credit they never gave up. The Eagles were led by Sunny Swanson who had a game high 13 points. The Eagles gave the Fillies a tougher game than their 34 point loss last time. Wahtonka came within three points on several occasions but the Fillies kept their poise and left Wahtonka with a 53-43 league victory. Heppner was led by Sara Greenup who had 12 points and Jodi Johnston who chipped in nine. Heppner is now in second place in the Columbia Basin Conference and will play in Pilot Rock Friday, Feb. 7.
