Lady Card goes for the shot

By Anne Morter

Early foul trouble plagued Condon's twin towers, Mardie Durfee and Shannon Wilkins, Sat. Feb. 1, early in the game, but it wasn't enough to get a flat Cardinal team into the game on Saturday.

Condon held a four point lead at halftime, 17-13, after being tied at the end of the first period. The teams traded baskets in the third quarter until late in the period, the Blue Devils ran off 10 straight points to turn a two-point game into a 12-point game. The lackluster Cardinal team cut the lead to five but couldn't get any closer and were forced to foul in the final minutes. Condon capitalized, hitting 13 of 19 free throws in the fourth quarter.

Kari Morgan led all scorers with 19 points. She also pulled down 14 boards as the Cardinals surprisingly outrebounded Condon, 34-27. Brandi Ball and Nancy Morter had three assists each, and Morgan and Morter each had three steals to pace their team.

Ione shot 16 of 50 for 32 percent from the floor while the Blue Devils hit 18 of 45 for 40 percent. The Cards had one of their best efforts at the line, hitting nine of 13 for 69 percent. But Condon capitalized on 15 of their 24 attempts to ice the game.

A dismayed coach Dana Heideman was disappointed with the weekend's play. "We didn't get a balanced effort in scoring from the team. We can't rely on one or two people to do all the scoring," he said. He was also puzzled by the lack of intensity exhibited by the Cardinals. "We have fallen off our pace of earlier games. We have wandered off the beaten path--now we have to readjust our minds and strategies and get back on track," he added.

The Cards have two home games this weekend, hosting Wheeler on Friday and Cascade Locks on Saturday.

Mustangs trail behind

Tiger Scots

Charlie Rathbun (40) snags a rebound

By Jeremy Maddern

The Heppner Mustangs took on the Weston-McEwen Tiger Scots Friday, Jan. 31 in an important boy's league game. Weston-McEwen had only one loss on the year to Stanfield and Heppner was coming off a tough loss to Wasco County. More importantly to the Mustangs was that they were without the services of sophomore guard Rick Koffler due to a hand injury suffered in an earlier game. The Mustangs however, lost in what was actually a closer game than the score indicates, 85-69.

Heppner stayed close with the Tiger Scots but could not overcome the height advantage. The Mustangs trailed at half and looked like they were going to stay close, but some turnovers and missed layins turned into a big lead for Weston-McEwen. Heppner surrendered and emptied their bench losing 85-69.
