North Lex Livestock

By Jake McElligott, reporter
The North Lex Livestock beef members met at the Proudfoot Ranch February 16. Members started off by having a test on the parts of a steer carcass. Jeri McElligott talked about record books and community service ideas. The group formed a community service committee of Megan Proudfoot, Miranda, Nikki and Mark McElligott.

Members talked about what they were going to do at future meetings. Stephanie Haguewood will give a report on the exterior parts of a steer and Megan Proudfoot and Mark McElligott will do a presentation on different cattle breeds. At the steer weigh in members will try to guess the weight of the steer. Whoever guesses closest will get a prize.

Members went to the Proudfoot corral. They practiced judging steers and heifers. Bill Broderick, Extension agent, helped. Jason Proudfoot showed the equipment members will need at fair. Amy Drake brought refreshments. The next meeting will be March 15 at the Drake ranch.

Two-Trackers

Officers were elected at the first spring Two-Trackers meeting. Jossie Evans was elected president; Stephanie Skultety, vice president; Mandi Gutierrez, secretary; reporter-Andrea Miles.

Club members will begin their riding program this Sunday, March 8 at 2 p.m. in the fairgrounds arena. General horsemanship and equitation will be from 2 to 3 p.m. followed by hunt seat over fences from 3 to 4 p.m. Everyone is welcome to come with your favorite horse.

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

The menu committee met recently to choose menus for the senior dinners for the next three months.

The Senior Focus group met on Feb. 25. Chairperson Grace Drake reported on the county rural health meeting. The group discussed various rural health problems and decided to focus on a wellness clinic. Eulenna Vaughn chairperson of the Boardman/Irrigon senior focus group was a guest at the meeting.

Tuesday afternoon Merri Reamer met with the office receptionists to discuss changes there might be in office routine now that she is no longer with ECOAC, but working for Morrow County.

District Attorney Jeff Wallace talked to the group about seniors rights before the mealsite on Feb 26. He also entertained by playing the piano.

One hundred-twenty-two people attended the dinner, two meals were taken out. There were eight out of town guests. Members of the Catholic Church served. The meal ticket was won by Grace Buschke. Ernie McCabe won the door prize and Gloria Hoffman, the guest prize. Wilma Mabe received the birthday gift.

Thursday, Feb. 27 the AAA executive board met with approximately 35 people present. Marilyn Bergstrom and a crew of volunteers prepared lunch for them.

Saturday evening a group went by senior bus to Hermiston where they enjoyed dancing.

The menu for March 11 is Spanish rice with meat, green beans, peaches, corn bread and brownies. Members of the Lexington Baptist Church will serve. The Senior Board will meet following dinner.

Dates to remember: Monday, quilting 1-4 p.m. St. Patrick's quilt tickets are still available at the center; Tues. & Thurs. 10-10:30 exercise; Friday 10:30 a.m.-Bible study; Saturday bus to Hermiston dance. Call Velma Wight for reservation 676-9050.

The seniors will serve breakfast at the fairgrounds March 14 and soup, bread, pie and coffee at the Senior Center March 14.

Chamber Chatter

By Claudia Hughes, chamber manager

Our city's St. Patrick's weekend festivities are just around the corner. Rain or shine, fog or snow, we're prepared to show everyone a great time. If you're a believer of the luck of four leaf clovers, then we're in business. Last week as I stood out in a pasture looking over possible bull purchases with my husband, I spied a four leaf clover and picked it to bring all of us "the luck of the Irish."

Irish family flags will be going up this week; the streets will be cleaned March 12; and let's all do a little extra along Main Street....anyone own a super-duper-pooper scooper? Let's clean-up March 8. The Lions Club has volunteered to clean the creek for the O'Ducky race.

Speaking of volunteers, Tim Coe was eager to adapt my three-foot leprechaun idea to seven wooden signs. One problem...now these little fellas have to be painted. Wanted: some to give a few hours of their time and talent between now and St. Paddy's weekend. You'll be hearing from me, please don't hide under a toadstool.

"May the leprechauns be near you, to spread luck along your way; and may all the Irish angels smile on you St. Patrick's Day."
