

Shannahan wins dog trials second year

Pat Shannahan and his dog Tony of Napa, Idaho, took first place out of 22 teams competing in the open class sheep dog trials held at the Morrow County Fairgrounds during St. Patrick's weekend in Heppner.

Shannahan, who also took first in last year's competition, won a trophy and $225 for accumulating 170 points.

Second in the open class for $150 was Michelle Weitz with her dog, Taff, from Boise, Idaho. They earned 167 points.

A close third with 166 points was Joe Roe and his dog, Shep, from Twin Falls, ID.

Debbie Peterson and Roy from Caldwell, ID captured first with 120 points in the pro-novice class out of 20 teams.

Pat Shannahan with Spud, belonging to Bob Schiller, took second in pro-novice with 112 points. Bill Allison and Meg of Junction City were third with 108 points.

Ruth Lake and her dog Jinx, of Lebanon were first in the novice division with 71 points. Dick Walton and Nell of Moxee, WA were second with 51 points and Ken Robinson and Gizmo of Scio were third with 35. Eight participated in the novice event. Walton was last year's novice winner.

Participants in the two-day trial came from Oregon, Washington,

Idaho and California. A total of 51 dogs competed.

Judge was Robert Aplebee of Lebanon, winner of last year's pro-novice class. Course director was Cliff Steelman of Oregon City. Steelman, a past judge, has helped with the trials every year and organized the first one.

The yearling sheep, "the finest trial sheep in Oregon," according to trial participants, were provided by Krebs Ranches.

Organizers were Bill and Sandy Rill, Brian Thompson and Sue Evans.

Valby Saturday school planned

Saturday, March 21, Valby Lutheran Church will hold Saturday Sunday School for the youth and their friends of the congregation. Valby is located 16 1/2 miles out of Ione on the Ione-Gooseberry road.

The day will begin at 10 a.m. with singing, led by Martha Peterson and Rikka Tews pianist. There will also be a special presentation of the first Easter, along with arts and crafts.

"This is a fine education program for the youth of the church and visitors and friends are most welcome to come and join in the festivities," said the Rev. Stan Hoobing.

Lenten services at Hope, Valby

Mid week Lenten services continue at both Valby and Hope Lutheran congregations. This week the theme is on "The Mouth of Christ to Speak God's Word," based on scripture reading of St. Luke 4:14-22a.

Prior to the Wednesday evening service at Valby Lutheran Church, the Ione Youth Group will serve hot potatoes and share some of their experiences feeding and serving the needs of residents of Burnside in downtown

Portland. The potato feed starts at 6 p.m. A free will offering will be taken for the ministry projects of the Ione Youth Group. The mid week worship service will follow the hot potato feed.

Thursday evening March 19, members and friends of Hope Lutheran Church in Heppner will gather at 6 p.m. for a soup and sandwich supper in the church fellowship hall. Worship will follow at 7 p.m.

Sunday's sermon will be entitled "Who Needs God?" Worship service at Valby Lutheran church begins at 9 a.m. and at Hope Lutheran church at 11 a.m.

Visitors and friends of the congregation are welcome to these and other services of the Hope-Valby-Condon Lutheran Parish.

Finances workshop planned March 30

Are you curious about how much sooner you could pay off your home mortgage if you made extra principal reductions each month? Would you like to be able to calculate monthly payments for a 3-4 year auto loan before you visit the dealer? Are you wondering how long your retirement funds will last at different levels of spending?

You can learn to quickly make these and other financial calculators at a 2 1/2 hour workshop at the Heppner Extension Office.

Hand held calculators will be provided for your use, and you can borrow the calculator after the class to increase your calculator skills.

The class will be conducted on Monday, March 30, from 7 to 9:30 p.m. in the Pettyjohn Office Building, Heppner. Carol Bennett, Morrow County Extension agent will conduct the workshop.

There is a $4 fee for the class workbook. Pre-preregistration is necessary. Call 676-9642 to enroll.
