BMCC grammar workshop slated

Blue Mountain Community College, in cooperation with Chemeketa Community college, will offer a "Grammar and Proofreading" workshop through EDNET during April.

The workshop is open to the public. However, content is aimed at government office employees, managers and supervisors, field workers and other agencies. It will help participants view grammar in a new, simplified way to help improve proofreading, punctuation and rewriting skills.

Offered on three consecutive Tuesdays, April 7, 14, and 21 from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m., the workshop will focus on different elements of grammar and proofreading so participants may practice the learned skills. As an EDNET course, there will be full-time audio interaction to enable participants to visit directly with Kris O'Harra, instructor.

O'Harra has over 22 years of experience in teaching writing, speech and vocabulary development. She has been on Chemeketa's instructional staff for 16 years. Her specialty is working with technical and business oriented students.

Cost for the course is $98, which include a packet of materials to be used throughout the three day course. For more information or to register, contact the BMCC Continuing Education Office at 276-1260, ext. 290.
