Chamber Chatter
By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

All residents of Central and Eastern Oregon who want to help shape the future of their communities and their state are invited to attend the Central and Eastern Oregon Sagebrush Unity Conference in Baker City May 8 and 9. This conference is about people from Central and Eastern Oregon taking charge of their destiny and determining ways to best preserve and enhance our cherished way of life. Topics for discussing are all areas that concern us-- the economy, agriculture, timber, the environment, education, community services for people, an our unique culture and heritage as residents of this part of the state. It sounds like an opportunity to articulate the values we hold dear, the issues we face, and the strategies we support. The results will be documented for distribution throughout the state. It is the intention that gatherings such as this will be held before every legislative session for years to come.

Registrants are asked to answer the following three questions: 1) With all the places one could choose to live, why do you live in Eastern Oregon? 2) What is it about living in Eastern Oregon that you value the very most? 3) What worries you most about the future of Eastern Oregon? If you can't attend but would like to share your responses, bring them by the Chamber Office and registrants will share them at the Baker meeting. For more information, contact Heppner Chamber, 676-5536 (Tues. & Wed.).

Hospitality Training Registration is due by April 22 for the April 27 training. The seminar is filling up fast, so interested persons are encouraged to send their $5 application fees soon.

Next week is Secretaries week. Chamber members are encouraged to bring their secretaries to lunch. A trip to Iceland on the agenda.

Wishing you a happy Easter weekend.
