PUBLIC NOTICE

HEPPNER RANGER DISTRICT FLATIRON SALVAGE SALE ENVIRONMENTAL ANALYSIS AVAILABLE FOR PUBLIC REVIEW

The Heppner Ranger District of the Umatilla National Forest has been working on an environmental analysis for the proposed Flatiron Salvage timber sale. The area is located in the western portion of the district in Wheeler County, including the Notch, Stahl Canyon, Long Prairie, and Flatiron Spring. The main issues identified for this area are forest health improvement, big game habitat, and riparian areas. Management action alternatives have been developed to address these issues. An Environmental Assessment (EA) is being prepared which documents and discusses these alternatives and their environmental effects.

A working copy of the Flatiron Salvage timber sale EA and background materials from the analysis file will be made available on request for public review and comment for 30 days from April 20 to May 20, 1992. When requesting materials, please be as specific as possible. The EA is about 50 pages long and the analysis file is at least 200 pages.

If you would like to review and/or comment on this proposed timber sale please send your request to Tom Wuenschell, Heppner Ranger District, Post Office Box 7, Heppner, OR 97836.

There is no charge to view the program at the Heppner Extension Office, 430 Linden Way. Seating is limited, and interested viewers should call the extension office 676-9642 to reserve a place.

Obituaries

George Elvin Miller

Memorial services for George Elvin Miller will be held Monday, April 27 at the Heppner Elks club at 1 p.m.

Mr. Miller, a former resident of Cecil died at a hospital in The Dalles. He was 86.

He was born January 18, 1906 at Cecil to George Adna and Sena Johnson Miller. Georges' grandparents Joseph S and Julia Ransom Miller came to Morrow County from Nebraska sometime in 1882 or '83 on their way to the Willamette Valley. They spent some time in a dugout near Cecil where the Oregon trail crossed Willow Creek, while awaiting the birth of a child. Georges' parents came from Round Lake, near Vancouver, WA. in the late 1800's or early 1900's and homesteaded three miles east of Cecil where George was born. He attended school through eighth grade at Fourmile School #28. Georges' father passed away when he was 17. George then assumed the responsibility of operating the ranch and caring for his mother. He had belonged to the Grange and the Oregon Wheat league for many years. At a very early age George became a rockhound and developed into an artist, creating objects from gemstones. He was a member of the Morrow County Gem and Mineral Society in Heppner and later became a member of the Tye Mineralites in The Dalles. He became an Oddfellow when he was 21 and remained a member until his death.

On August 18, 1960 he married Ruby Padberg. He learned to fly and became a pilot in 1965. This was an experience he loved. In 1972 he retired and he and his wife moved to Quartzsite, Arizona to be near his son Paul and to pursue his rock collecting. The unbearable summer heat prompted them to return to Oregon and spend winters in Arizona.

They moved to The Dalles in 1973. In 1987 the Millers moved to the Camlu Retirement Community in The Dalles and later were selected as residents of the year among all Camlu operations in Oregon and Washington. Just prior to George's death they had moved again to the new Flagstone assisted living facility in The Dalles. Through the years George had received several trophies and medals from the National Rifle Assoc. for his marksmanship with several kinds of weapons.

Survivors include his wife Ruby, a son, Paul E. Miller, stepsons, Roger Kincaid, Ralph Kincaid, Lindsay Kincaid and Lyle Kincaid and two grandchildren.

Smith Callaway Chapel is in care of the arrangements. Heppner Oddfellows is in charge of the memorial service.

RJ Britt

Funeral services for RJ Britt were held Thursday, April 16 at the Baptist Church in Fossil. Concluding service and burial was at the IOOF Cemetery in Fossil.

Mrs. Britt, of Fossil, died Monday, April 13, 1992, on her 85th birthday at Mid-Columbia Medical Center in The Dalles.

She was born April 13, 1907 at Franklin, N.C. to Charles and Gorda Roper Younce. The family lived in North Carolina until 1920 when they moved to Oregon. They resided in the Willamette Valley for a short time before moving to Spray.

On March 3, 1924, she married Clyde Britt at Goldendale, WA. The Britt's lived on a ranch near Spray before moving to Kinzua in the early 1930s. In 1940 they moved to Fossil. Mrs. Britt worked in the kitchen at the Fossil School helping to cook and serve lunches.

She was baptized into the Fossil Baptist Church in 1939.

Mrs. Britt spent time helping residents at Haven House Retirement Home in Fossil. She enjoyed flowers and gardening.

Survivors include sons, Robert C. of Lexington and John L. of Heppner; daughter Betty Knight of Portland; brother Spencer Younce of St. Helens; 10 grandchildren, 19 great grandchildren and four great-great grandchildren. Her husband died in 1983 and a sister, Berniece, also died earlier.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Fossil Baptist Church Memorial Fund, PO Box 365, Fossil; Haven House, Box 386 Fossil or the Fossil Ambulance Fund Box 467, Fossil, 97830.

Sweeney Mortuary, Condon, was in charge of arrangements.

Rioha Reay Rizzio

Rioha Reay Rizzio, 83, died March 25, 1992 in Salem Memorial Hospital from complications following elective surgery. Mrs. Rizzio was a former Ione resident attending Ione schools.

She was born Hazel Orral Feldman, the daughter of Orral and Carl Feldman, in San Jose, CA. She graduated from San Jose High School in 1926.

Mrs. Rizzio was one of the first female pharmacy graduates from Oregon State College, where she received honors for excellence. She graduated from the school of pharmacy in 1930 and remained a registered pharmacist in Oregon.

In 1928, she became a member of Kappa Delta Sorority and remained active with this group until her death.

After Mrs. Rizzio graduated, she married Emil Richard Russell, who was also a pharmacy student at OSC. She was widowed in 1933 and left with an eight month-old son, Rhioh Zane.

She married Robert Rizzio in 1939. They lived primarily in the San Francisco Bay, CA., area and had one son, Rhioh Heigh, in 1943. Mrs. Rizzio returned to school for her teaching certificate in the 1950s. She taught elementary school until her retirement in 1974. Mr. Rizzio died in 1981.

In 1990 she returned to Corvallis to live near her son's family. She joined Timberhill Athletic club where she made many friends. She attended several local churches, including the Unitarian Fellowship, Unity, First Christian and Jehovah's Witnesses, and was known to attend two churches on Sundays.

Other hobbies and interests included gardening, pottery, music and travel.

Survivors include two sons Rhioh H. Rizzio of Corvallis and Rhioh Z. Rizzio of Crescent City, CA and eight grandchildren.

Donations in her memory may be made to the OSU Foundation for the Rizzio Scholarship Fund in the School of Pharmacy. A scholarship fund has been established to benefit a female pharmacy student in financial need who has high scholastic merit.

Memorial services will be held May 9 at 11 a.m. at the Unitarian Fellowship, 2945 NW Circle Blvd in Corvallis.
