Ione student receives honors

Creighton University student Patricia McElligott of Ione, has been named to the dean's honor roll for academic achievement during the spring 1992 semester.

Full time students who achieve a grade-point average of at least 3.5 or better are eligible for the dean's honor roll.

Creighton is an independent Catholic university at Omaha, Nebraska, operated by the Jesuits. It has an enrollment of approximately 6,000. Creighton enrolls students in the colleges of arts and sciences and business administration, the graduate school, university college, and schools of nursing, medicine, law, pharmacy and allied health professions, dentistry and summer sessions.

Troedson winners

The selection committee for the Carl W. Troedson Educational Fund awarded grants-in-aid in the amount of $1,000 to 13 Morrow County seniors during graduation week.

Receiving scholarships from Ione High School were: Nancy Morter, Eric Orem, Kari Morgan, Amy Pointer, Brandi Ball, Brent Sheirbon and Kristine Bedortha;

Heppner High: Kimberly Johnston;

Riverside High: Jana Mounts, Richard Cole, Amie Keizur, Brandon Suchy and Laurel Glenn.

Chisana Warren and Heidi Nelson of Ione High School were alternates.

These grants are awarded from a fund provided by the Last Will and Testament of Mr. Troedson, a prominent wheat rancher of the Ione area.

These students will be eligible to apply for renewal of their grants in the following years of their college or training programs provided that they maintain good academic standing during their first year of post high school study.

The selection committee consists of the Morrow County School District Superintendent, the Pastor of the Valby Lutheran Church, and the Morrow County Judge, as specified in Mr. Troedson's will.
