

ASSE host families sought

Cathy Halvorsen is bringing the world to northeastern Oregon, one international teenager at a time. Halvorsen is the area representative for ASSE International Student Exchange, a non-profit, public benefit organization. The primary goal of ASSE is to contribute to international understanding by enabling foreign students to learn about the United States through active participation in family, school and community life.

Halvorsen is interviewing families in the northeastern Oregon area to host high school students from Scandinavia, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Great Britain, Spain, Portugal, France, Holland, Japan, Mexico, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand. This year ASSE is proud to add Estonia, Czechoslovakia and Poland to its international roster.

The students stay with volunteer host families for an academic year and arrive with comprehensive insurance and their own spending money.

For more information call on becoming an ASSE host family call Halvorsen at 422-7107 or 800-733-2773.
