The Trail News

Morrow County was well represented this past weekend on the rodeo trail.

Mike Mahoney won the steer wrestling title in Tacoma, Washington.

Cliff Dougherty placed second in the calf roping at Corvallis with a time of 9:71 and also placed in the calf roping at Redmond.

Tony Currin won another all around title and a hunting rifle. He placed second in the calf roping and steer wrestling at Hillsboro.

Kinzua Corp will be sponsoring the saddle again this year for the Morrow County Amateur calf roping.

This will be their 43rd year of sponsoring the saddle. They would like all past winners to either ride on horseback with their saddles or ride on the float Kinzua will enter in the parade to honor past winners. For more information contact Donna Moeller at Kinzua Corp. Those on horseback have been invited to ride in the grand entry during the rodeo.

The Red Bandana Band, a five man country/western group from Portland will be providing entertainment at this year's Oregon Trail Pro Rodeo. ## Chamber Chatter

By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

This smokey, hazy morning reminded me that fall is just around the corner. Harvest is drawing to a close and the county is preparing for the annual Morrow County Fair and Oregon Trail Pro Rodeo. Grab your hat (as in "Hats Off to Morrow County") and send in your parade entry form to Chamber parade chairman Bryan Traylor. We want this to be the biggest and best parade...a salute to Morrow County.

A trip to Ontario accompanied by Cara Osmin, resulted in Morrow County's inclusion in the Eastern Oregon Visitors Association, formerly Northeastern Oregon Vacationlands. The Morrow County Tourism Committee felt that belonging to this regional group would benefit Morrow County in numerous ways. They were receptive to our offer and welcomed us. Two representatives and one alternate will be required to attend monthly meetings in LaGrande. EOVA includes the counties of Morrow, Grant, Union, Wallowa, Malheur, Baker and Umatilla. The group was the recipient of $107,150 in lottery funds for marketing eastern Oregon. Heppner Chamber encourages all persons with tourism interests to become involved with the Morrow County Tourism Committee. Benefits are far reaching.

Thought for the week: It's what you learn after you know it all that counts...John Wooden.
