Veteran clown to entertain at rodeo

An 18-year veteran of the clowning business, Donnie Landis of Fresno, CA. is the 1992 Oregon Trail Pro Rodeo clown barrelman.

Landis has worked many of the Northwest rodeos, including the Pendleton Round-Up for the past three years.

Using "Q" cards to whip up enthusiasm in the crowd, Landis' acts include "Wild Cantbeatlope," "Mario, The Trained Flea," and "Claimjumpers".

Working with Landis will be bullfighter Bruce Kimsey.

class.

Contestants may use only stock saws and no modified chainsaws are allowed in the Morrow County class. Saws are limited to 5.7 cubic inches and under in the Morrow County event. The contest is a timed event and two timers will be provided. The contest is for amateurs only.

Every hat has a story

Do you have a hat that has a story to be told about it? This year's Morrow County fair has just the contest for you. Wednesday evening at 6:30 p.m. just prior to the Chapeau Show will be the Favorite Hat contest.

Come and enter your favorite hat in the contest. Prizes will be given for the most original hats. Hats may be old, new or even created from your own imagination. They can sing or dance or tell a story. Whatever the hat, join in the fun and enter the favorite hat contest.

Entry forms are available at the Morrow County Fair office or write PO Box 464, Heppner. Entries should be turned in by August 19 at noon.

Carnival to be at fair

As an added attraction, the Morrow County Fair will once again feature Randy's Funland Carnival for all four days of the carnival, August 19 through 23.

Randy Ross' carnival from Portland will have games, rides and concessions for kids of all ages.

4-H enrollment up from last year

To date, there are 274 members enrolled in the Morrow County 4-H Youth Development Program. There are 147 home economics and expressive arts projects, 181 livestock and horse projects and 39 cultural heritage and games projects. Horticulture, natural resources and small animal projects bring the total project enrollments to 399. 4-H project members enrolled by June 1, 1992 are able to participate in county fair 4-H events and contests. There will be lots of 4-H project exhibits on display at the 1992 Morrow County Fair. Come visit the 4-H Annex and Livestock areas during fair to view contest and other activities. All fairgoers are invited to the 4-H awards ceremony on Saturday at 4:30 p.m.

Pit barbecue and all the trimmings

A pit barbecue and all the trimmings will be held at the All Saints Episcopal Church on Saturday, August 22 from 4 to 7 p.m. following the rodeo. Hungry fair and rodeo goers will have a chance for a delicious meal in the shade between the rodeo and livestock auction.

Besides pit barbecue beef, the menu will include baked beans, baked potato, cole slaw, hot or cold beverage and ice cream.

Prices are $7 for adults, $6 senior citizens 60 years and older and $3.50 for children six to 12 years. Under six are admitted free.

All Saints Episcopal Church is located on the corner of Church and Gale streets.
