Obituaries

James Beamer Anhorn
A memorial service for James Beamer Anhorn will be held Friday Sept. 25 at Memory Gardens in Medford. Mr. Anhorn died September 16, 1992 in San Francisco, CA.

J.B. Anhorn was born July 8, 1949 to Carl William and Irene Anhorn of Central Point. He attended Central Point schools and graduated from Crater High School in 1967 where he was student body president.

He was with the U.S. Army for a short period when he received a medical discharge and attended the University of Oregon.

He worked as manager of Anhorn-Faber Insurance Company and was a member of Central Point Chamber of Commerce and Rotary Club. He moved to California where he worked for several companies.

Survivors include his mother Irene Anhorn of Heppner; brothers William of Salem, Jeffrey of San Jose, CA, and Michael of Central Point; and a sister Catherine Christensen of Pilot Rock. He was preceded in death by his father C.W. Anhorn.

Floyd Albert Borman
Floyd Albert Borman, 84, formerly of Lexington, passed away Sept. 19, 1992 in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Funeral services will be Thursday, Sept. 24, 1992 at 2 p.m. at Grays West and Co., in Baker City. Interment will be in Mount Home Cemetery.

Mr. Borman was born Nov. 22, 1908 at Whitney and spent his childhood and school years in Whitney. He worked as a mechanic and welder for Morris & Knudsen Co., in California for many years. He returned to the Pendleton area where he did mechanical work until his retirement. He lived in Lexington after his retirement and he worked several years for the Lexington Water Co. He loved square dancing and followed them until health reasons had forced him to quit.

Survivors include: two sons, Calvin, Sandia Park, NM and Wayne of Hermiston; daughter Roberta Borman Hughes, Umatilla; brother Louis H of Baker City; sister, Myrtle C. Hacker, Baker City and five grandchildren.

Margaret H. Lindley
Graveside funeral services were held for Margaret Hope Lindley Sept. 21, 1992 at Canyon City Cemetery. A memorial service was held earlier today.

Mrs. Lindley, 66, of Ione, died Friday, Sept. 18, 1992 at her home.

She was born July 24, 1926 at Caldwell, Idaho, to Marian and Marie Francis. She graduated from Grant Union High School in John Day in 1944. She married Ben Lindley in 1948.

She was employed at Ellingson and Edward Hines lumber companies before becoming postmaster at Seneca, a post she held for 10 years before moving to Ione where she also served as postmaster.

She served as an officer and member of the National and State Association of Postmasters and had served on the school board and city council at Seneca.

Survivors include sons, Jim and Ben, both of John Day and Zane of Kimberly, Idaho; daughter, Kimberly Dugan of Kingston, WA.; brothers, Gordon Francis and Lawrence Francis, both of Seneca.

Memorial contributions may be made to the National Arthritis Foundation, Oregon Chapter, 4412 S.W. Barbur Blvd., Portland, 97201 directly or through Driskill Memorial Chapel, 241 S. Canyon Blvd., John Day, 97845.
