

Lexington News By Delpha Jones

--Lexington Grange was host on Saturday, Oct. 17 to the Blue Mountain Fiddlers who gave a fun and enjoyable concert with lots of beautiful music. Preceding the concert the Grange served a spaghetti supper. The Fiddlers come to this area the third weekend in October every year. Some arrive on Friday where they enjoy a get-together during which they practice and visit. On Sunday the group ate breakfast in the hall and departed for various homes. The Grange enjoys bringing this fine group to the area and appreciates all who attend.

--Jean Nelson has returned home after a week spent on the coast with her daughter and husband.

--Bill and Bonnie Klinger from Wyoming were Thursday overnight visitors at the home of his parents Bill and Annetta Padberg.

--Barbara and Eldon Gilbert were visitors in The Dalles on Friday with their daughter, Donna.

--Twenty-four relatives gathered at a Mexican restaurant in The Dalles on Saturday for a birthday party honoring Charlene Whitney. Finger foods, cake and coffee were enjoyed. The cake was a lovely pink creation adorned with ever-burning black candles and black roses. Attending from Lexington were her parents Cecil and Delpha Jones, her brother, Kenneth and his wife Connie, and sons, Chris and Mike Jones.

--Sam Seefeldt and his sister, Dorothy Struck, brother and sister of Maynard Seefeldt, visited at the Connie Jones' home last week and attended the funeral of their brother, Maynard. They flew to Pasco, WA. from Wisconsin where they make their home, and spent several days in Lexington.

--Mina Fish, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon and her husband, Gordon, grand trustee of the Oddfellow Lodge of Oregon spent several days last week at the Cecil Jones ranch.

--Stuart Dick and small daughter of Hermiston were Lexington callers on their way to their mountain home, the Mateson school house, which he is remodeling. He picked up a sign prepared by the Morrow County Historical Society for the building and will finish it and hang it. The sign reads "Madison School 1904-1940". Stuart is busy researching the history of the school and will welcome any information concerning it.

--Lyle and Virginia Peck and Josie Peck returned home Thursday from Portland, bringing Glover Peck who has been a patient in St. Vincents Hospital. He was transported there earlier by helicopter following a heart attack.

Red Ribbon campaign week Oct. 24

October 24 through Nov. 1 is Red Ribbon campaign week. Red Ribbon week is an important part of the mission of the Oregon Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth. The Red Ribbon campaign week is an opportunity for drug prevention and alcohol awareness for both children and adults.

Red Ribbon symbolizes a commitment to a drug free, healthy lifestyle. No illegal use of alcohol, no use of any illegal drug and no illegal use or harmful use of a legal drug or substance.

"Take some thoughtful action this week," said Stan Hoobing, convener for the Oregon Together group. "Wear proudly the Red Ribbon 'drug free and proud'. Red ribbons are available at the Bank of Eastern Oregon, First Interstate Bank or Murray's Drug store. Show your commitment and support of Red Ribbon Week and help the communities of Ione, Lexington and Heppner build the bridge from awareness to action," said Hoobing.

There will be free coffee at Cal's Restaurant, Kate's Pizza and the R & W Drive In on Wednesday, Oct. 28, for those wearing the red ribbons. At noon Heppner Elementary and Middle school students, the Heppner football team and various adults of the community will parade through town. Following the parade will be a rally and speeches at the elementary school.

"Let us all get behind and support the activities of Red Ribbon campaign and present a unified and visible commitment toward the creation of a drug free America," said Hoobing, "by working to change society's permissive attitude toward illegal use of alcohol and other drugs to one where alcohol and other drug use is viewed as absolutely unacceptable."

GRAZING ON PUBLIC LANDS

- Bob Smith supports grazing on public lands, and opposes an increase in the federal grazing fee, which would displace 5,000 family ranchers in the first year alone.

TIMBER

-Bob Smith believes jobs and the stability of timber-dependent communities should take precedence over preservationist measures. Smith leads the charge against legislation that would tie up millions of acres and cost Oregon 50,000 jobs. Smith has urged the Forest Service to salvage the dead and dying timber from forests, providing 8,229 family wage jobs, prevent forest fires, and improve forest health.

ENDANGERED SPECIES ACT

-Bob Smith introduced a proposal that would protect the owl and save 11,000 jobs in Oregon. Smith feels it is time we made people as important as fish and birds.

HEALTH CARE

-Bob Smith is fighting to control medical costs and provide affordable health insurance to everyone. Smith is opposed to a government-run medical system, with the compassion of the IRS and Pentagon prices. Smith introduced legislation to bring quality health care to rural areas, and cosponsored a health care plan to provide medical insurance for 20 million Americans.
