

Historical Society seeks trail pioneers

The Oregon Trail Committee of the Morrow County Historical Society invites descendants of Oregon Trail pioneer to contact them. "It will be interesting to see how many present county residents are descendants of those hardy pioneers," said a club spokesperson.

Send your name, the name of the Oregon Trail participant and a short sketch of that person's life and family history. Contact persons are Jean Nelson, Robin Baker, Marsha Sweek and Lorine Griffith.

Fillies named to CBC team

Three Heppner Fillies were named to the CBC all-conference volleyball team this past week. First team honors went to hitter-setter, Holly Eckman and server-setter Jodi Johnston. Sara Greenup made the honorable mention team, serving strong all season.

Cardinals beat Echo Cougars

The lone Cardinal football team finished their season with a big win over Echo, 63-34.

Their season ends with a 7-2 record. The Cardinals lost to league champions, the Dufur Rangers, last week, spoiling their playoff hopes.

Coach Gregg Rietmann said he felt it was the best season Ione has had in nearly 10 years.

Melodrama comes to Heppner and Ione

"Dirty Works at the Crossroads" coming Nov. 15 and 24 to Heppner and Ione stages, is set in a country garden on the banks of a Connecticut river.

This classic gay nineties mellerdrammer tells in a laughable style the tear-jerking story of Nellie Lovelace, an innocent country girl played by Aleida Goodyear, of Adam Oakhart, the stalwart blacksmith's son played by Bryce Tucker and of Nunro Murgatroyd, the villain from the big city, played by Jim Raible. Munro, the viper has his wife in Ida Rhinegold (Lea Mathieu), the bell of the New Haven music halls, but that does not prevent his pursuing the innocent Nellie to snatch her from the arms of her dying mother played by Chris Burkenbine, whom incidently, he has poisoned, nor does it prevent his driving Adam to drink, from blackmailing the rich Mrs. Upon Asterbilt (Cyde Estes) or bewitching her daughter Leonie (Missy Wallace).

The music, with Debbie Wryn at the piano, includes a variety of old-time songs such as "All That Glitters Is Not Gold" and "Why Did They Dig Ma's Grave So Deep?"

"This is but a sampling of this 'ridiculous burlesque,'" says director Jane Rawlins.

Reserved tickets are on sale at Murray's Drug Store for $3 adults, $2 students or $10 for a family. Proceeds go to the daycare programs in south Morrow County.

Holiday gift sale set at Sr. Center

A holiday gift sale, 'Sugar and Spice and Everything Nice,' will be held at St. Patrick's Senior Center on Saturday, Nov. 14 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The sale will feature Thanksgiving and Christmas items, bunnies, wood-crafts, herbs & spices, ceramics, angels and other gift items.

Cookies and cider will be served.

HHS Booster Club to save UPC symbols

Heppner High School Booster Club is saving Western Family UPC symbols.

The organization is redeeming them for cash in order to purchase items for the school. Labels with the UPC symbol or bar code may be dropped off at Central or Court Street Markets.
