One hundred ten people were present for the senior dinner Wed. Nov. 4. Ten meals were taken out. Members of the Mormon church served, assisted by Daisy Collins. Bernice Nash won the free meal ticket and the door prize went to Millie Hanna. The Nutrition Site Committee met after the dinner. Clair Johnson and Velma Wight are host and hostess for the month of November.

The Thanksgiving dinner will be Nov. 18. The menu will include roast turkey, cranberry sauce, candied sweet potatoes, vegetable, rolls, cookies, pudding or cake. Members of the Episcopal church will serve.

The Morrow County Creative Arts and Crafts held their annual art fair at the senior center Friday afternoon and Saturday, Nov. 6 and 7. Girls from the school helped arrange the tables for the arts and crafts, and helped put them back in order again. Hats off to our helpful Heppner young people.

Food drive set November 16

A Heppner, Lexington and Ione community food drive will be held Monday, Nov. 16 from 6 to 7 p.m.

The food drive, sponsored by area Christian youth in cooperation with Heppner High School volleyball and football players and camp fire girls and boys, will collect food for the holiday distribution by the Neighborhood Center.

Those planning to be away from home that evening may leave their food donation on their front porch.

In addition to food, toys, infant clothing and toiletries are also needed.

Laundry seminar scheduled

Lifestyles have changed and so have laundry habits. Smaller households, less space for appliances, concerns for energy and water conservation, increased use of natural fibers and less time for clothing maintenance are some reasons for the changes. These topics and more will be discussed by Carol Michael-Bennett, OSU Extension agent.

The educational program will be conducted on Wednesday, November 18 at 10 a.m. at the Pendleton Extension Office, 721 S.E. Third Street, and will be repeated as a public program at 7:30 p.m. at the Boardman Library, 206 N. Main Street.

Pre-registration is not necessary for this free program. For information contact Carol Michael-Bennett, 676-9642.
