Heppner ball carrier makes yardage against Umatilla

The Heppner Mustangs won the Columbia Basin Conference championship Friday night, Nov. 6, with a convincing 27-0 shutout of the host Umatilla Vikings at Milt Durand field in Umatilla.

This end of the season game between these two rivals was the third time in a row these two have met for the league championship and each time the visitors have won.

Rock solid defense was a big key to the win as seniors Kevin Kilkenny, Ryan Pence and Scott

Coe led a defensive charge that stumped the Viking attack for the entire game. Umatilla gained only 62 yards in the first 3 1/2 quarters and didn't get their first down until there was 5:17 left in the game. Junior defensive backs, Len Britner and Kevin Payne each picked off a pass in limiting the Vikings to only 42 total yards passing.

The offensive story of the night was a grind-it-out ground game combined with a potent passing attack.

After each team punted three times, Heppner took over on the Umatilla 13 yard line. After Coe, Riehl and Payne gained nine, five and seven yards on the ground, quarterback Rick Koffler found senior Tony Burt on a down-and-out pass lobbed just over the defensive backs' reach. Burt sprinted down the sideline, broke one tackle, and went 66 yards for the touchdown. The snap from center for the pat was low and holder Kevin Payne lateraled the ball to kicker Len Britner. Britner cut around the right end and dove into the end zone for a two point conversion. Heppner led 8-0 with 1:55 remaining in the first quarter.

Both defenses continued to play well as Koffler and Russ Proctor for the Vikings exchanged punts. Umatilla took over on their own 13 yard line just before the half. An ill advised halfback pass was intercepted by Britner and returned to the Umatilla 33 yard line. A 13 yard gain on a Scott Coe screen pass kept the drive going. Koffler found a wide open Len Britner in the end zone for a 20 yard touchdown with only 29 seconds left in the half. The snap on the pat was bad and the score was 14-0 at the half.

The Mustangs opened the second half with a monster 14 play drive that took 6:20 off the clock and kept the ball out of the Vikings' hands.

Heppner sealed the victory with a nine play 59 yard drive to open the fourth quarter. Another Koffler to Britner touchdown pass of 12 yards ended the drive in the end zone. The pat was good for a 21-0 lead.

On the next series, a bad punt snap gave the Mustangs the ball on the Umatilla six yard line. After an offside penalty, Koffler hit senior Jason Hanna with a three yard touchdown pass and it was "turn out the lights" time for Umatilla. The pat was blocked for a final score of 27-0.

Heppner wins the right to host a first round playoff game against the Enterprise Savages this Saturday, Nov. 14 at the Morrow County Fairgrounds. The game begins at noon. The Vikings will travel to meet the Vale Vikings at the same time.

Enterprise has a 7-2 record, losing to Vale and the 3A Burns Highlanders. The Savages opened their season with a 41-10 thumping of the Umatilla Vikings.

Fillies gain playoff berth

The Heppner Fillies captured the Columbia Basin No. 2 state playoff berth by defeating Sherman 15-0, 16-14 and Pilot Rock, 15-3, 16-18, 15-13 at the 2A district tournament held at Wahtonka November 7.

The Fillies will take on the powerful Imbler Panthers at LaGrande on Saturday, Nov. 14 at 6 p.m.

Tournament play in The Dalles started with Heppner versus Sherman Union. Heppner cruised out front behind the serving of Jodi Johnston and the hot hitting and dinking hands of Holly Eckman. Heppner, playing with much improved passing and ball control, proved too strong for Sherman. Rondi Robinson, Jenny Krein, Sarah Greenup and Kelsie Evans played with high intensity as a unit on the floor to blend with a balanced attack with Johnston and Eckman to take game one, 15-0. Johnston was 9-10 for eight points serving.

Game two provided a tighter see-saw battle with Sherman trying to challenge and gain control, only to see Heppner continue good team play to take the game and match 16-14. Johnston and Krein were hot servers with 14-16 and 12-12 respectively against the Huskies.

Heppner then paired against Pilot Rock to fight for a state playoff berth. Heppner, easily beating Pilot Rock five days before, met a much different Rocket team this time around. The Rockets gave Heppner a scare, but the Fillies prevailed with a tough 15-3, 16-18, 15-13 win.

Heppner took off somewhat sluggish, but broke out at 3-3 with a Ruth Norton tip kill. Eckman served an ace to take the lead, and Heppner never looked back, taking the game 15-3, behind serves from Rondi Robinson and Jenny Krein.

Heppner serves caused unforced errors for Pilot Rock as frustration set in, enabling the Fillies to go into the game too confident. The Fillies raced out 5-1 only to see Pilot Rock regroup and comeback 4-5. Greenup sent a super left handed tip kill down to gain a 6-4 lead for Heppner.

Both teams were struggling and hit a dead lock at 7-7. Robinson had a spike kill, followed by a Krein kill, only to have Heppner slump back with untimely spike errors to let Pilot Rock back in to tie it at 10.

Substitution combinations for Heppner caused uncertainty among players as destruction set in, giving the Rockets the needed momentum. Heppner never regained unity on the court and let the match slip away, 16-18.

Game three saw a dejected team comeback using strong play among teammates to work it out point-point. Jodi Johnston, setting superb all evening, continued to use Holly Eckman, Jenny Krein, Rondi Robinson and Kelsie Evans for kills off the net. The Fillies, holding firm, pulled out the win, 15-13 to head on to LaGrande this Saturday. The Fillies, peaking at the close of the season, have a good shot of upending Imbler, to whom they previously lost.

Ione wins playoff match heads to district

Echo and Ione volleyball teams held a playoff match Friday, Nov. 6 in Echo for the number two spot in the district playoff game.

Echo took control of game one winning 15-13. Ione came back in games two and three with a big 15-6 win, and a close hard-fought 16-14 win, taking the match.

Ione played good all-around volleyball, commented coach Greg Likens. April Taylor and Kim Bedortha both served 11 out of 11. Daniel Stefani completed 19 out of 20 serves and made 15 points.

The Cardinals had to overcome some mistakes to win the final game.
