

Weddings

Plocharsky — Hesse

Susan M. Plocharsky, Beaverton, and Troy D. Hesse, Hillsboro, were married in a double-ring ceremony Oct. 17, 1992 at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Sherwood.

The Rev. Donald Winkler of Sherwood performed the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Warren and Irene Plocharsky of Heppner. The grooms parents are Ted and Paulie Hesse of Hillsboro. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Maid of honor was Hope Fakini of Aberdeen, S.D.. Bridesmaids were Paula Plocharsky, sister of the bride, Carrie Brownfield and Holly Pfister, cousin of the groom.

Best man was Fred Pfister, cousin of the groom. Groomsmen were Todd Hesse, brother of the groom, Wayne Plocharsky, brother of the bride and Scott Krahmer. Ushers were Steve Plocharsky, brother of the bride and Brian Hesse, brother of the groom.

Flower girls were Kyla Stelling, niece of the bride and Korinna Hoffman. Candelighters were Jeff and Julie Watkins of Heppner. A reception at the church followed the ceremony.

The bride graduated from Heppner High School and attended Eastern Oregon State College. She graduated from Emmett Travel School. She is employed at All About Tours in Tigard.

The groom graduated from Hillsboro High School and attended Eastern Oregon State College. He is employed at Hoffman's Farms in Sherwood.

After a wedding trip to Cancun, Mexico the couple is at home in Scholls.

Don't buy
a single parka.

Buy a system. The Columbia Interchange System, to be exact. Take the Powder Keg, for example. The Bergundtal Cloth™ outershell is great for spring showers and the Thinsulate® reversible liner takes the chill out of fall. Combine them and you're set for all that winter throws at you. Four jackets, one price.

Artifactory set December 5

The annual Christmas Artifactory and Christmas Greens workshop is scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 5 at the Morrow County Fairgrounds in Heppner.

Artifactory is a craft fair sponsored by Heppner Soroptimist International. Tables are rented to individuals who wish to sell their handmade crafts or homebaked goods. A variety of items are available this year by many local people and people from as far away as the Tri-Cities and Meacham.

Photos with Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus will be available from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m.

Lunch will be available and will include cinnamon rolls, hot dogs, chili, baked potatoes and homemade pie.

"Artifactory is a good time to buy that special Christmas gift, have something good to eat, and visit with friends. Come join us," said a Soroptimist spokesperson.

Advent study planned at IUCC

An adult study on "Embodiment: A Study of Sexuality" will be held at Ione United Church of Christ on the first three Thursdays of December at 7:30 p.m.

Topics include "the gift and the ideal"; "an historical survey of sexuality and the church"; and "issues in the news: homosexuality and abortion".

The class will be led by the Rev. Lea Mathieu, using as a basic text theologian James Nelson's "Embodiment". Interested persons who would like more information may call Mathieu at 422-7530.

Shower time changed

A baby shower for Barbara Childers, scheduled for Sat. Nov. 28 at St. Williams Church in Ione has been moved up to 1 p.m. that day.
