

Alumni basketball tournament scheduled Jan. 1-3

Everyone is invited to attend the Heppner alumni basketball tournament which will be held Friday through Sunday, Jan. 1-3.

Admission is $3 for adults, $1 for students or $15 for a family pass. Children must be supervised and are not allowed on the balcony. The balcony is for adults only.

The basketball games start Friday at 1:30 p.m. and are double elimination. The pre-68 team will play the non lettering team. The rest of the schedule is as follows: 3 p.m. '69-'72 vs '73-'76; 6 p.m. '90-'92 vs '81-'83;

7:30 p.m. '77-'80 vs '84-'89.

On Saturday the loser of the first game will play the loser of the second game at 12 noon and the loser of the third and fourth games will play at 1:30 p.m. The winners of the first and second game will play at 3 p.m. with the winners of games three and four playing at 6 p.m.

Sunday's games will begin at 1 p.m. with the winners on the losers bracket playing at 1 p.m. and the championship game at 6 p.m.

The women's teams will play on Friday and Saturday at 4:30 p.m. and Sunday at 4 p.m. A women's free-throw contest and men's three-point contest will be before the championship game on Sunday at 5:30 p.m.

A social get-together is planned for Saturday evening January

2, at the Heppner Elks club. There will be a meeting Tuesday, Dec. 29 at 7 p.m. at the Columbia Basin Electric Coop. This will be the final meeting and team captains should attend.

I Kent Goodyear

Am considering a run for mayor of Heppner, Oregon in the November 1994 election. I am asking for your opinion as to my potential candidacy. When you see me in town, at a meeting, or socially please stop to discuss my candidacy. Help me make this decision.

Happy Holidays To All,

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

There were 120 people in attendance for the Christmas dinner on Wednesday, Dec. 16 at the Senior Center, with four guests and 11 dinners sent out. Members of the Catholic Church served. Truman Messenger won the meal ticket, Wanda Johnson the door prize and Mrs. Gus Streether of Spray received the guest prize. The Nutrition Site Committee met following the dinner.

The menu for the birthday dinner Dec. 30 will be meatballs with mushroom gravy, broccoli, mashed potatoes, rolls, ice cream and cake. Members of the Baptist Church will serve.

Fifty-four people gave blood at the Red Cross blood drawing at the Senior Center Dec. 17. The Catholic Church sponsored the drive. A large group of small children from the elementary school caroled in the halls at the St. Patrick's Senior Center on Thursday evening, Dec. 17. The tenants were delighted to hear their beautiful voices.

Now that the end of the year is near seniors should be reminded of services available to them.

Dinner is every Wednesday at noon. Seniors are served nourishing food and may visit with friends and relatives. Homebound seniors may order a meal on Wednesday by calling the center office, 676-9030 and it will be delivered to them.

Meals on Wheels may be obtained the other week days by calling the Pioneer Memorial Hospital dietician to make arrangements 676-9133.

A foot clinic is held at the center the first Wednesday of each month. Call the Home Health Department at the hospital for an appointment.

Blood pressures are taken at the center the second and fourth Wednesdays before dinner.

The dollaride car is available to take seniors to appointments or for shopping. Call Jane Rawlins 676-9435, or the center office, 676-9030. Carol Mitchell of OPI may be reached at the senior center office Tuesdays and Thursdays; exercise class is Tuesday and Thursday, 10-10:30 a.m.; Bible study on Monday, 10:30-11:30. The quilting will resume on Mondays in January from 1-4 p.m. Merry Christmas.

Fast away the old year passes,
Hail the new, ye lads and lasses,
Sing we joyous all together,
Heedless of the wind and weather,
Fa la la la la la la la...
