Members of the Nazarene church served 110 people at the senior dinner Dec. 23. Ten dinners were taken out. Barbara Struthers won the meal ticket, Don Haugen the door prize and Marbel Blam of Mitchell the guest prize. Children from the First Christian Church Sunday school entertained, singing Christmas carols. The seniors always enjoy having the children sing.

The menu for dinner Jan. 6 will be leg of lamb, potatoes, salad, hot rolls, fruit and cookies. Members of the Methodist Church will serve. There will be a Nutrition Site Committee meeting following the meal.

The "real Santa" made a stop at the senior apartments leaving gift bags of candy and fruit at each tenant's door. A nice gentleman who didn't give his name left a gift tray of candied fruit with Velma Wight to be shared with all the tenants. The tenants appreciate all the goodies they have received.

The senior bus will go to the dance in Hermiston New Year's Eve. Anyone wishing to go to the dance should contact Irene Schroeder 676-9132, or the Senior Center 676-9030, to sign up.
