New District Attorney starts work

Earl Woods

Newly-appointed Morrow County District Attorney Earl R. Woods, Jr., began work at the courthouse on Jan. 4.

Woods, 49, who has been in private practice in Coquille for the past 12 years, is no stranger to Morrow County. His step-father Kenneth Oviatt, graduated from high school in Heppner and his mother spent time with relatives in Ione as a child.

Woods himself worked laying water lines in Heppner as a teenager and lived at the hotel during his stay. The owner of the hotel at the time was a friend of his stepfather's. Wood said that while he was here he got to know Sheriff C.J.D. Bowman and his family and remembers being shown the water mark of the 1903 flood on a downtown building. "I like it here," Woods commented. "I feel very much at home."

Woods said that his wife, Gail, who is a registered nurse, grew up in Eastern Oregon. She lived for a time in Ukiah and graduated from Burns High School. Gail will remain in Coquille until they are able to sell their house, he said.

Woods has two children, Allison, 12 and Patrick, 11, who live with their mother. Gail also has two children Christine, 16 and Brian 14.
