Kevin Kilkenny

Seven Heppner Mustang football players were recently named to the state 2A all-star team. Five of the Heppner players made the first team, and three of those were chosen for both offense and defense.

Scott Coe, Len Brittner and Ryan Pence were selected both ways, with senior fullback T.R. Riehl named to first string offense and senior lineman Kevin Kilkenny to defense.

Rounding out Heppner's other selections were Junior Quarterback Rick Koffler and Junior defensive back Kevin Payne both named to the second team. Kilkenny was also named to second team offensive line.

Coe, a 5-foot-eleven, 185-pound senior, was named as a running back and linebacker. Pence, a 6-foot, 210-pound senior, was picked at offensive guard and defensive lineman. Brittner, a 6-foot, 170-pound junior, was on the first team as a receiver and defensive back.

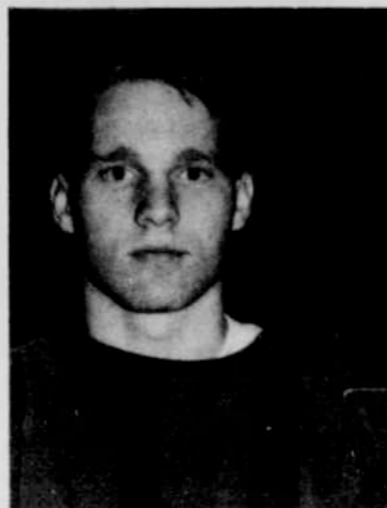

The Mustangs had an outstanding season this year, going undefeated and beating Vale 24-12 to win the state championship.

Fillies crush Rockets

By Jeremy Maddern

The Heppner Fillies showed the Pilot Rock Rockets why they are the team to beat in '93 as they crushed them 59-23, in a league game in Heppner last Friday, Jan. 22.

The defense was stellar throughout the game as the Fillies outmatched the lesser talented Rockets. Heppner jumped out to an early lead as they outscored the Rockets 14-6 in the first quarter. The Fillies kept rolling as they built a 17 point lead at the half. Heppner dominated the Rockets throughout the third quarter as they rolled to a 29 point lead. The starting five rested most of the fourth quarter as the bench still managed to outscore the Rockets by seven to go on to an impressive 59-23 win.

The Fillies were led by Holly Eckman and Kelsie Evans with 10 points each.

Booster club plans meeting

A Heppner High School Booster Club meeting will be held on Wednesday, Feb. 3, beginning at 7 p.m. at the Heppner High School home ec room.

The agenda will include finalizing the plans for a chili feed which will be held on Friday, Feb. 5 at the HHS home game against Weston-McEwen.

Jamie Lovett (42) goes up for shot against Echo

By Anne Morter

With four minutes to go in the first quarter the lady Cards had already put 24 points on the scoreboard to Echo's three, last Saturday Jan. 23, at home against Echo. Ione led 37-17 at the half and cruised on to a 68-29 victory, eclipsing their season high scoring total.

Melissa McElligott again led all scorers with 19 points followed by Jamie Lovett with 16 and Crystal Minster with 10. Lovett and McElligott each had eight rebounds as the lady Cards edged the Cougars 38-35 in the rebounding department. McElligott and Minster each had four assists and April Taylor had four steals in the game.

Ione had a good shooting night from the field where they hit 32 of 61 for 52 percent. At the line, they managed just one of four for 25 percent. Echo shot 12 of 36 for 33 percent from the field and hit five of 23 for 22 percent from the line.

"The kids came out and played hard," said coach Dana Heideman. "We executed well and shot well." He also noted that Lynde Minster came off the bench to hit two out of three shots from the three-point land.

This weekend, the lady Cards play Helix on Friday and Wasco County on Saturday. Both games will be played in Ione.

The Ione Cardinals kept their league record perfect with two wins over the weekend, on Friday with a high scoring runaway against Arlington, 97-55, and Saturday with a fairly close one at Condon, 71-59. Their league record now stands at 4-0 and their season mark is 7-4.

Everyone scored at least four points against Arlington as the Cards took a 97-55 victory. Jake Bacon led the Cardinal scorers with 16 points followed by Jared Ashbeck with 13, Jim Logan with 12 and Aaron Heideman with 10. Dan Smythe of Arlington scored 30 points, making over half of his team's point total. The Cards dominated the boards, 72-23. Aaron Heideman led the effort with 11. Jason Halvorsen and Ryan Halvorsen added seven apiece. Justin Miller and David Wagenblast had three assists each, and Logan grabbed four steals. Deacon Heideman had two blocked shots in the game.

The Cardinals shot 41 of 84 for 48 percent from the floor and 11 of 15 from the line for 73 percent. Arlington hit 21 of 55 for 38 percent from the floor and 10 of 19 for 53 percent from the free throw line.

"Everyone was relaxed, everyone shot well and played well," commented coach Del LaRue. "We got lots of help off the bench," he added.

Mustangs dominate Huskies 68-50

By Jeremy Maddern

The Mustangs continued their dominance in league play with a 68-50 victory over the Sherman Union Huskies in The Dalles, Saturday, Jan. 23.

The Mustangs' offense started off with a bang as they built a six point lead after the first quarter of play. Heppner held the Huskies to seven points in the second quarter to build a 14 point lead at the half.

The Mustangs kept things rolling behind Scott Coe's game high 15 points. With a big lead heading into the second half, Heppner showed no signs of letting up as they added four points onto their lead after three quarters of play.

The Huskies offense got on fire but the Mustangs were too powerful as they rolled to another league win.

Tony Burt added to the Mustang attack with 12 points while Rick Koffler chipped in 11.

The Mustangs are now 5-0 in league play and 8-3 overall. The Mustangs have a bye this Friday, Jan. 29, but travel to The Dalles again on Saturday, this time to take on the Wahonka Eagles.
