

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

The Senior Health Care focus group met in the dining room at the Senior Center Tuesday, Feb. 16 with chairman Stan Hoobing. Molly Reha from home health care and Carol Michael-Bennett of the Extension service were also available to help the group make plans for the health fair. The tentative date for the fair is April 29.

There were 95 people present for the senior dinner Feb. 17, with four meals taken out. Members of the Catholic church served. Alice McCabe won the meal ticket, Adine Stone the door prize and Norma Edger received the guest gift. A center board meeting followed the meal.

The senior board has set up a trust fund that is now operable. Donations are gratefully accepted.

The menu for March 3 will be Hungarian goulash, green beans, apple sauce, bread and crisp. Members of the Baptist church and Heppner Christian Missionary Fellowship will serve.

Plans have been made for the St. Patrick's celebration. More volunteers and pie bakers and servers are needed for the soup luncheon Feb. 13. Stop by the office to sign up.

Tickets for the quilt raffle are still being sold in the office.

There was only one table of cards playing Friday afternoon. With improved weather it is hoped more will be able to attend this Friday. There was also a small turnout for the dance Friday night. It was great fun for those who were there, said a spokesperson. Velma Wight was the hostess.

Sunday evening 10 people enjoyed the movie Beethoven provided by Florence Holt.

Dates to remember: Focus meeting March 2, 10:30 a.m.; Willoughby Hearing Aid representative at Center March 3, 10 a.m.-2 p.m.; Monday, 9 a.m.-noon free tax service, 10:30-11:30 Bible study 1-4 p.m. quilting, 7:30 p.m. knitting; Tues. and Thurs, 10-10:30 a.m. exercise; Friday 9 a.m.-noon and 1-5 p.m. tax service, 2:30 p.m.-cards and games; Sunday 6 p.m. movie.

If there is a group of musicians or a piano player who would like to play chords for a fiddler contact George Storms, Nadine Toombs father. Storms has played several numbers on his fiddle for the senior's dance and would like to practice with someone.

Wedding reception set for Angells

A wedding reception for Jim and Kim Angell will be held Saturday, March 6 from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Morrow County Fairgrounds annex building. Friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Jim Angell and Kim Keen were married February 6, 1993 at Reno, Nevada.

Wheat commission plans meeting

The Oregon Wheat Commission will hold a regular meeting on Thursday, Feb. 25 at 1 p.m. and a Research Review meeting on Friday, Feb. 26 at 9 a.m. Both meetings will be held at the Sizzler Restaurant in Pendleton located at 1515 Southgate.

Chamber Chatter

By Claudia Hughes, chamber manager

Sixteen days until the leprechauns crawl out of the snowdrifts. As the snow continues to drift down, try to envision our parade. Towns have Christmas parades in the snow, so why not a St. Patrick's parade? Wouldn't the green be a stand-out against the white background. We could always have leprechauns on snowmobiles instead of golf carts. Unique, it would be but the committee has faith that sunny weather will prevail. Whatever, our Wee Bit O'Ireland celebration will be the best yet because of all the terrific volunteers who put their nose to the grindstone to make it happen.

Looking ahead to Chamber activities in March: March 2 will be the board meeting at 11 a.m. at the Elks followed by the business meeting, which gives all entities in the community an opportunity to share with the membership and answer questions.

Bill Umbarger, Heppner High School teacher, will explain the work experience student program on March 9; a conference call with Senator Wes Cooley is scheduled for March 16; some interesting facts will be shared about "Your Privacy" or lack of by Carol Michael-Bennett, OSU Extension Service on March 23; and on March 30 Gary Neal will give chamber members an update on the busy Port of Morrow.

Remember: Chamber meets on Tuesdays at noon at the Elks. See you there.
