

Pageant tickets still available

Truman Messenger (l) the oldest cast member (90 years old) repairs a shoe for Meghan Bailey in the pageant "Erin Came to County Morrow". The youngest cast member at four months is Teri Straley.

Tickets for the Irish pageant this coming Saturday night are selling fast, according to Murray's Drug, who are handling all reserve ticket sales.

The show "Erin Came to County Morrow" will be held March 13 at 8 p.m. in the junior high auditorium. The pageant traces the history of the Irish here from the 1870's through the 1920's with skits, ghost stories, an authentic letter from the county museum and lots of Irish music in solos, duets, chorus, violin, piano and dances.

Among many performers new to the show this year will be Smokey Joe Wightman of Boardman, Lea Mathieu, Jim Raible, Michelle Kandle and Marie Tworek of Ione; Sharla Erich, Macy Rhea, Debbie Kahl, Tim Sumner, Paula Spicerkuhn, Missy Wallace, Kelly Rafferty, Dusty Rollis, Hal Bergstrom, Cheri Smouse, and Janet and Brok Tucker.

Those wishing to be sure of seating should purchase tickets now at $3 each or $10 for a family. Dress rehearsal will be closed. Viewers may be admitted to the dress rehearsal at 6 p.m. for $1.50 per seat only if the house is sold out by Thursday.
