Ione sports awards announced

By Anne Morter

David Wagenblast was named the most valuable player of the Ione High School basketball team at the winter sports awards ceremony held last Thursday, March 18. Wagenblast paced the team with 191 assists, also earning him the assist award. He was also named to the All-Star first team at the Class IA State Tournament, after setting several new state records shooting three pointers.

Jake Bacon took the most inspirational award and Justin Miller was named most improved.

Aaron Heideman took the rebound award with a season total of 258 boards. Jim Logan had a total of 57 steals and Deacon Heideman had 74 blocked shots to take those awards.

For the girls' team, April Taylor was named Miss Inspirational Crystal Minster, the only senior on the lady Cardinals' team, garnered both Miss Defense and Miss Hustle. Jamie Lovett was named most improved and Miss Rebound with 175 rebounds during the season. Freshman Melissa McElligott was named Miss Assist with a total of 60.

Both Cardinal teams finished with a 17-7 season record. Both teams also won the district championship and placed fifth at the state basketball tournament.

Weddings

Anderson — Fountain

Katrina Marie Anderson and Robert Michael Fountain of Seattle, WA, were united in marriage on February 13, 1993, at Saint John Vianney Catholic Church in Juanita, Washington.

The bride is the daughter of David and Barbara Anderson, currently living in Quito, Ecuador, and granddaughter of Nels and Esther Anderson, Elmer and LaVonne Morford and Jim and Barbara Bloodworth.

The groom is the son of Roger and JoAnn Hagle, of Whidbey Island, WA, and Gordon and Karen Fountain, Seattle.

The bride wore an ivory Victorian-style floor-length gown with a chapel-length train. The dress was covered with pearls and sequins that reflected the stained glass colors of the church. She carried a cascading bouquet of red and white roses.

Anissa Anderson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridal attendants were Stephanie Grey, Brenda Taylor, and Michelle Bain, friends of the bride. The attendants all wore matching purple street-length dresses with pearl accessories and carried bouquets of red and white roses.

Chris Hunt was best man with Paul Farsai, Trent Davis and Patrick Seehafer as groomsmen, all friends of the groom.

Servan Anderson, brother of the bride, and Jessica Sands, cousin of the bride, were candlelighters.

Flower girl Helena Mast, cousin of the groom, carried a basket arrangement of roses and Kellen Arb, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer. The ring bearer's pillow was made by Barbara Bloodworth, grandmother of the bride. The roses used for the wedding and reception were shipped from Ecuador by the brides father.

A reception and dancing followed the ceremony at Haller Lake Club. A brunch for family members was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Owen, great-aunt and uncle of the bride, in Kirkland, WA.

The couple honeymooned in Barbados. Katrina and Rob are currently living in Seattle where Katrina is working as a pension plan consultant at Benefit Administration Company and Rob is an account representative at United Broadcasting Sales Company.

Juveniles charged in vandalism

Earl R. Woods, Jr., Morrow County District Attorney, announced that the Morrow County Sheriff's Dept. has identified five juveniles responsible for the vandalism of the school busses on Feb. 5 and 6 at A.C. Houghton school in Irrigon. All five juveniles have been charged. Woods said that there was substantial damage to the tires and the wiring of the school busses.
