

District Pinewood Derby winners

The Cub Scout Pinewood Derby district championships were held at the Heppner Elks Club on Saturday, May 8.

The district includes four counties, Morrow, Wheeler, Umatilla and Gilliam. Each pack has a run-off in a local Pinewood Derby contest. The first three scouts who place in the local contest may compete at district. The district championships are usually alternated between Hermiston and Pendleton, but this year the Heppner group was the sponsor.

Senior District executive L. Dell Hayden, who was on hand for the championships, says that the competition is secondary to the project itself. "Competition is fun," said Hayden, "but the real brunt of the activity is building the car with mom or dad." Local organizers of the district contest this year were Debbie Young, chairman, Bruce Young, Dan Van Liew, Hal Bergstrom, Chuck Nelson, Bill Jepsen, Ron Bowman and the Heppner Elks Club.

Marriage Licenses

The Clerk's office at the courthouse in Heppner reports issuing the following marriage licenses during the past week:

May 4: Kevin Lee Troxell, 20, Heppner; and Melanie Lea Gates, 20, Heppner.

Jack Dunning Mureen Giffen, Jr., 41, Hermiston; and Angelika Burke Schnell, 39, Irrigon.

Local musicians play in concert

Rosalie Scharen and Sharla Erich, both Heppner, performed in the Oregon East Symphony concert on Sunday, May 9 in Pendleton. Both Scharen and Erich play the violin.

The concert will be rebroadcast on KRBM radio (90.0 FM) at 8 p.m. on May 17.

The concert included "Symphony number 8 in G Major" by Antonin Dvorak with four movements. Four winners of the young artists' competition were featured in the second half of the concert. Selections included "Concerto in E Major" 1st movement. J.S. Bach, featuring Stephen Beus, piano, elementary division winner; "Concerto in D Major" 1st movement. F.J. Haydn, featuring Joel Dickerson, piano, junior high division winner; "Concerto number 13 in C Major" (first Movement), W.A. Mozart, featuring Jenny Sharp, piano, senior high division winner; and "Concerto #2 in C minor" 1st movement. Sergei Rachmaninoff, featuring Monta Monique, piano, young adult division winner.

Music director and conductor is R. Lee Friese.

The Reviews Are In On Our Fight Against Fraud.

An Oregon insurer has success rooting out fraud.

- New York Times
December 30, 1991

When SAIF Corporation launched an aggressive campaign against fraud in 1989, we had two objectives: to increase awareness of fraud and reduce it within Oregon's workers' compensation system. Now, five years later, we have accomplished both.

SAIF's Fraud/Investigations Division has been awarded nearly $1.8 million in judgments through civil and criminal cases. We've saved policyholders almost $4 million by reversing unjustified disability awards. And it's results like this that led to stories in the New York Times, Readers Digest, and on television news programs such as ABC's 20/20.

At SAIF, we know that every dollar spent on fraudulent activity is a dollar that is unavailable to help prevent accidents and to take care of truly injured workers. That's why we're working closer than ever with other companies, government agencies, and law enforcement officials to put an end to fraud. Period. Which is good news for Oregon businesses and their employees, but bad news for those who cheat SAIF.
