Thank you for all the people who stopped to help us out on March 28 with our car accident. You really helped us to keep calm. Your faces we won't forget but names have slipped our minds. Wish we could thank you all personally.

Thanks to the ambulance crew for being so kind and the doctors, nurses and the staff at Pioneer Memorial Hospital for all your help. All you wonderful people of the community that offered to help in any way, thank you very much. Phone calls to the hospital to help Vera lift her spirits up, the minister Lea Mathieu, Don Bristow and Marilyn Childers for bringing family to Portland.

Thank you for all the lovely flowers, cards, stuffed animals and balloons. Thanks to the Bristow Market staff for changing their schedule so Don could ride in the ambulance to Portland with Vera.

All the food that has been brought in really gave the guys a break. God bless you all.

Wayne and Vera
