

Heppner students selected for U of O TAG program

L-R: Jonas Healy, Brian Koffler, Shannon Benjamin

Three students from Heppner Elementary and Middle School have been selected to attend the 1993 Summer Enrichment Program for Talented and Gifted students at the University of Oregon. The three are eighth graders Shannon Benjamin and Brian Koffler and seventh grader Jonas Healy. All three live in Heppner.

Benjamin, daughter of Larry and Sharon Benjamin, has again won the Morrow County School District math contest for her grade.

Koffler, son of George and Debbie Koffler is the 1993 spelling champion for Division II and will compete at state fair this fall.

Healy, son of Jerry and Carmen Healy also placed in the recent school district math contest.

The summer program at the University of Oregon is a two-week experience designed to provide opportunities for intellectual, academic and interpersonal development. It has been an important opportunity for students from small communities who may not have the academic options available in larger schools. Several young people from Heppner grades six through nine, have participated in this program since its inception in the early 1980's. They have all enjoyed the challenge of the classes and the interaction with other gifted individuals, said Linda Shaw TAG coordinator.

Record number for bike-a-thon

By Anne Morter

A record 58 participants made the annual St. Jude's Bike-a-thon a success again this year, according to event coordinator Loa McElligott. Thirty-three bike riders completed the 22 mile route from Ruggs to Ione and 25 pedaled for charity within the city limits of Ione. The event, which continues to grow each year, drew participants from Ione and Heppner as well as several towns in western Oregon and even from Washington, D.C. It also provided an afternoon of entertainment for a fair number of spectators, parked in lawn chairs in the shade.

Ethan Burnside was the first rider over the line from Ruggs, finishing in just over one and a quarter hours. Kelly Morgan was close behind. The ride from Ruggs also featured two tandem bicycles this year, one powered by Jim and Eileen McElligott and the other by Mark Schwyhart and Janet McElligott.

In town, Natalie McElligott made 22 laps around the one-mile course to log the most miles. Alex Rietmann, age two months was the youngest participant, napping in his stroller, and Justin Key, age one, was the youngest on a bike, riding behind his mother. The riders in town were lead and monitored by several adults, including leaders, Janet Thompson, Becky Tullis and trailer, Jeri McElligott.

Gallons and gallons of water and lemonade were consumed by the thirsty riders and a multitude of donated cookies were also quickly dooned. With temperatures in the high 80's and a slight breeze, the riders were quite appreciative of the pickups with water monitoring the Ruggs Route and for the cookie and drink table for the in-town route. Pledge sheets and money should be turned in on or before Sunday, May 30, to either the Bank of Easter Oregon in Ione or Morrow County Title and Abstract in Heppner. T-shirts for qualifying riders will arrive three to four weeks after the pledge sheets are turned in. The names of those participating and collecting will be posted in Heppner and Ione.

Coordinator, Loa McElligott was pleased with the turnout, both of participants and community volunteers. "Their efforts are really appreciated," she says.

Funds raised by the bike-a-thon go to the St. Jude Research Hospital in Memphis, TN. St. Jude is a leading children's cancer research hospital and is funded mainly by private donations.

Lutherans to hold special services

On Sunday, May 23, the Lutheran congregations of Hope and Valby will observe the seventh Sunday of Easter under the "able leadership of two fine women," said Pastor Stan Hoobing.

Rev. Grace Drake, a retired Methodist minister, will give the sermon on the theme of "Radical Trust", based on scripture reading of St. John 17:1-11. Ms. Rachel Hoobing, a sophomore at Pacific Lutheran University, will be the liturgist for the worship services.

Adult Bible class at Valby will meet at 8:15 a.m. Worship service will be at 9 a.m. Sarah Carlson will be the pianist.

Worship service and Sunday school at Hope Lutheran Church will begin at 11 a.m. At the close of the service the Sunday School students will be given a special presentation before the congregation and all the Sunday school teachers will be recognized. A special coffee hour will be held after the service in honor of Laurel Webber-Gray, the only senior at Hope Lutheran to graduate this year from high school. Dr. Jeanne Berretta will play the piano for worship service.

Visitors and friends are welcome to come to worship services.

Turnout lane completed

Workmen put finishing touches on turnout lane at Kinzua

The Highway department has completed work on a turnout near Kinzua Corp. in Heppner and was expected to begin painting lines on the roadway Wednesday, according to Doug Dubuque of Kinzua. Dubuque said that the turnout was constructed as a passing lane for safety reasons because of the amount of traffic near Kinzua. He said that painting should be completed by the end of the week.

Communion slated at All Saints

Rev Bob Crum will celebrate Holy Communion at All Saints Episcopal Church on Sunday, May 23 at 10:30 a.m.

Rev. Crum will be available for appointments Friday and Saturday, May 21 and 22. To make an appointment call the church office at 676-9970.

Poppy money benefits veterans

The Heppner American Legion Auxiliary will be accepting donations for Memorial Day poppies at the Heppner Post Office this Friday, May 21. The poppies are handmade by veterans, who earn money through the donations for their poppies.
