Chamber Chatter
By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

Chamber is receiving more and more calls from people wishing to move to our area. One of the first questions they ask is "Do you have doctors and a hospital?" Many small communities are losing population rapidly because of lack of medical facilities.

Sometimes we forget just how fortunate we are. Our doctors are not only important to our physical health but to the overall health of Heppner. It is for this reason that the Chamber of Commerce will be hosting an appreciation dessert for Drs. Ed and Jeanne Berretta from noon to 1 p.m. next Tuesday, July 13 at the Heppner Elks Club. There will be a short program and the public is invited to come to say 'thank you' to Berrettas for their dedication. If you have questions, call the Chamber office 676-5536 or Ann Murray 676-9158.

Looking ahead: Tuesday, July 20, the program will be Gary Neal giving Heppner an update on Port of Morrow activities, and July 27 chamber members are looking forward to a tour of Kinzua.

It's beginning to feel like summer and about time too. Camping inquiries are frequent this time of year and thanks to John Edmundson, of the Morrow County Tourism Committee, Chamber now has a handout listing information on all RV facilities in the county. There are many options available, ranging from river to mountains. Enjoy.

Thought for the week: Do not use a hatchet to remove a fly from your friend's forehead...Chinese Proverb.

DMV will be closed July 14

The Heppner Motor Vehicles office will be closed on Wednesday, July 14 due to training.

The office will be open regular hours 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on Tuesday, July 13.

Reading program kicks off in Ione

Christy Crowell, Ione Topic Club librarian has announced that the children's summer reading program held a kick-off party July 7 at the Ione Public Library. Children were asked to come dressed as their favorite fictional character.

The program will run through August 11 with prizes being presented to those who read 10 or more books. Library hours are Monday and Wednesday from 2 to 5 p.m. Edith Mathews is the regular librarian.

New books placed in the library recently include: "Fall of the House of Windsor" by Nigel

Blundell; "Days of Grace", Arthur Ashe's autobiography; "Murder at the National Cathedral", Margaret Truman; "Mom, Dad, Mike and Pattie" Bonnie Remsburg, a true story of the Columbo murders; "I Want to Grow Hair, I Want to Grow Up, I Want to Go To Boise", Erma Bombeck; "Death of Ann Humphrey and the Truth about Euthanasia, Compassion", Ruth Marker; new edition of the Hardy Boys and the Nancy Drew Series; "The Client", John Graham; "J for Judgment", Sue Grafton and "Truman", audio tape by David McCullough.

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

There were 128 people in attendance at the Senior dinner June 30. Nine meals were taken out. Margaret Dubuque won the meal ticket and Wilma Mabe won the door prize. Ray Gonty took the guest prize home to Seattle, WA and Laura Searles received the birthday gift. Members of the Catholic Church served. A special Meal Site Committee meeting was held after the meal.

The menu for July 14 will be fish with tartar sauce, mashed potatoes, carrot, pineapple raisin salad, hot rolls and pears. Members of the Baptist Church and Christian Missionary Fellowship will serve. There will be a senior center board meeting following the dinner.

Monday, June 26, seven seniors rode the small bus driven by Dot Halvorsen to Hermiston where they attended a training class for meal site volunteers presented by Julia Fowler.

The larger bus, driven by Ed Baker, took eight seniors to Irrigon for lunch. They also toured some sites along the Oregon Trail and the store at Cecil.

Eleven ladies enjoyed the flower arranging class Tuesday night. The class will continue through Aug. 3.

The Sunday night movies will resume July 11 at 7 p.m. Come 'swing into shape' with the exercise class any Tuesday or Thursday morning, 10-10:30 a.m.
