Ione Garden Club compiles book

Ione Garden Club members met at the home of Jean Nelson July 14 to compile the club history book. They enjoyed looking at all the things they had accomplished this last year and pictures of all the activities.

After a salad luncheon the group discussed the final plans for the coming year's program with subjects such as "Color in Your Garden, Migration of Birds, Garden Weed Control and Eradication, Status of the Umatilla National Forest in Morrow County and Compatible Plants in our Gardens" included for discussion.

Plans were made for members to help with the Flower Show at the county fair August 18-20. Members brought floral arrangements using the fair themes.

Coordinating council to meet

The Heppner Coordinating Council (HCC) will meet in the GEODC office on Tuesday, July 27 at 7:30 a.m.

Agenda topics include Skip Mathews on the swimming pool project, Bob Kahl on the Willow Creek Reservoir RV Park project and the U.S. Forest Service Economic Recovery Grant applications.

HCC meets regularly on the second and fourth Tuesday mornings of each month. Meeting notices and agendas will appear in the Gazette-Times the week before each meeting.

The meetings are open to the public.
