

Senior Queen contest Thursday

The 1993 Senior Queen Contest will be held Thursday, August 19 at 10 a.m. on the stage in the picnic area at the Morrow County Fairgrounds.

The queen will be selected from princesses from each community in Morrow County-Boardman, Irrigon, Heppner, Ione and Lexington. Each candidate will give a short speech and answer a variety of impromptu questions. Contestants must be 65 years or older and live in the community they represent.

Entertainment for the contest will be provided by a kitchen band from Irrigon.

The 1992 Senior Queen, Gladys Hobbs, will crown the new queen. Princesses for 1992 were Esther Minnick, Boardman; Eva Griffith, Heppner; Ruth McCabe, Ione and Millie Rauch, Lexington.

Essay contest for senior citizens

An essay contest for senior citizens will be a part of the 1993 Morrow County Fair on Thursday, August 19 at the fairgrounds.

The contest is open to all seniors, 65 or over, who are residents of Morrow County. The essay must be an authentic story of pioneer life along the theme "Memoirs of the Past." The essay may be oral, written or taped on a cassette. If the essay is oral it must be no longer than 15 minutes; if written, 1,000 words or less.

A $50 prize will be given in each of three categories, most historical, most humorous and most adventurous.

Entries must be turned in by Monday, August 16. They may be mailed to the Morrow County Historical Society, c/o Barbara Bloodsworth, PO Box 338, Heppner, OR 97836 or left at the Morrow County Fair Office.

The contest will follow the Senior Queen contest.

Entries will become the property of the Morrow County Historical Society.

Plenty of Morrow County talent featured at fair

Lisa Lowary

There will be plenty of Morrow County talent featured as entertainment at the 1993 Morrow County Fair.

Morrow County residents and alumni featured on this year's line-up of entertainers include

Lisa Nix Lowary, Pat and Lizzy Smith, Tiffany Lloyd, Ken Morris and Sheila Marie.

A former Heppner girl, Lisa Nix Lowary, who graduated from Heppner High School in 1982, is just one of this year's performers.

Lisa is hoping to pursue a professional music career in the future. Lisa will perform Saturday, Aug. 21 at 5:30 p.m.

Lisa, her husband Todd, and their two children Krista 6 and Logan 3½, live in Pendleton where Lisa has had her own successful child care business for the last six years.

A mother-daughter team Pat and Lizzy Smith, from Irrigon, will perform on Thursday, Aug. 9 at 5 p.m.

The talented duo has previously performed at the Morrow County Fair and at the Boardman Coal-Fired Plant and the Sage Riders Rodeo. They also performed at the Irrigon Watermelon Festival.

Tiffany Lloyd

A Riverside High School sophomore, Tiffany Lloyd of Boardman has been performing since the age of six. Her performances include the Pendleton Round-Up, the Best of Show Tri-Cities Water Follies talent show and the Arnold Schwarzenegger Fitness Fair. Tiffany has also been the opening performer for the Ferlin Huskey.

Ken spent his early childhood in Heppner. He has resided in Boardman for the past 16 years.

Ken has been singing for seven years and has accumulated numerous musical awards. Ken's musical roots lie in jazz, swing, choral, rock and most importantly country.

Sheila Marie, who will perform Friday and Saturday night, is a relatively new face in this area. She has lived in Boardman for the last 2½ years. In that time she has performed in the Muddy Frogwater contest, the Water Follies, the Pendleton talent show and many community and church sponsored events. Recently she sang the National Anthem at the Columbia Cup Hydro Plane Races at the Tri-Cities.
