

Past Fair and Rodeo queens to be honored in parade

Eva Padberg Griffith was rodeo queen in 1923. She, along with 41 other past queens, will be honored during this year's parade.

Past Morrow County Fair and Rodeo queens will hold a special place of honor in this year's parade set for this Saturday, Aug. 21 beginning at 10 a.m.

Queens only will be invited to participate. Unfortunately, past queens' courts will not be able to ride along, because of a lack of space, said an organizer. The queens will not be wearing their rodeo outfits, but will be wearing old cowboy hats.

Forty-one out of 54 living queens will ride in the parade, including the 1923 rodeo queen Eva Padberg Griffith. There was no fair that year. This was the second rodeo held.

Eva, the daughter of William Henry and Mary Padberg, grew up on her folks' place in Clark's Canyon. In the 1923 rodeo at the age of 14, she rode with her princess Jane Allstott. Eva was grand marshal for the 1975 fair and rodeo and has ridden in several parades over the years.

Eva has seven children, 23 grandchildren, 34 great-grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

1992 world champs to compete at rodeo

World champions Joe Beaver of Huntsville, Texas, and Charmayne James-Rodman, of Galt, CA., are scheduled to compete at this year's Oregon Trail Pro Rodeo.

Other top competitors include calf ropers Fred Whitfield, 1990 rookie of the year and 1991 world champion and Brent Lewis, 1991 rookie of the year and second in the world 1992.

Past world champion team ropers Mike Beers and Dee Pickett are entered in Saturday's performance. Other top PRCA and WPRA-timed event contenders include J.D. Yates, Brad Gleason, Rod Lyman, Marty Jones, Marlene Eddleman-McRae and Sharon Kobold.

The contenders in the riding events were not available as of press time. However, the total numbers of contestants in these events are as follows: Saddle Bronc 30, Bareback 27 and Bull Riding 21. Overall entry numbers are up from previous years.

Joe Beaver

Charmayne James-Rodman

"The rodeo committee is thrilled about the new arena and are expecting the biggest and most exciting show ever," said Sandi Ford-Day, rodeo committee member.

Woodcutting maps available at Forest Service

Woodcutting maps are now available for two additional and one expanded firewood areas on the Umatilla National Forest. Maps may be obtained at any Forest Service office and at businesses that sell firewood permits.

Two of the areas are located on the Walla Walla Ranger District. The Horseshoe Prairie Area (#5), which was already designated and opened on Sunday, Aug. 15, has been expanded. The new map of this area supersedes the old map and woodcutters in this area need to make sure they are using the revised map. However, a salvage sale is also being planned in the vicinity. Areas where salvage harvest is planned will be posted "Timber Sale Area-No Firewood Cutting."

A new area also opened Aug. 15 along FS Road 3102 off of the Mt Emily Road. The Wells Area #7 has a good supply of lodgepole pine available and will remain open through October 1. No felling of any standing snags is allowed on the Walla Walla Ranger District except within 200 feet of FS Road #3128 in the Black Mountain Area #4.

On the Heppner Ranger District, a new area will open on September 27 on FS Road #2110 approximately eight miles west of Tupper Guard Station. The Gilman Area #4 will remain open through November 15.

Pioneer Days parade planned at Boardman

"The Boardman Pioneer Day Parade, is an opportunity for everyone to recreate the joys and difficulties of emigrant life on the Oregon Trail," says coordinator Myrtle Brown. The parade, to be held on Saturday, Aug. 28, starts on north Main Street and is open to all interested participants. There will be categories for "Best Pioneer Clothing", "Kids Covered Wagon Creations", "Golf Cart Covered Wagon Conversions" and more.

Pre-registration for the parade would be appreciated but Brown says that "anyone interested can be at the staging area at 9 a.m. on parade day and we'll work them into the parade line." The staging area will be east of Main Street between Front Street and Boardman Avenue.

A parade favorite will be the Morrow County Fair and Oregon Trail Pro Rodeo Court. Another unique parade feature will be honoring descendants of "Trail" emigrants. Parade organizers are trying to locate descendants of emigrants that came west "on a trail" (as opposed to a train, boat or auto). Descendants will be able to ride on a float, and receive special recognition during the Pioneer Days Celebration. Coordinator Myrtle Brown requests that pioneer descendants contact her at (503) 481-3222 prior to the parade.
