Rebekah's to meet

By Delpha Jones

Holly Rebekah Lodge and the Lexington Lodge #168 will meet on Thursday evening for their regular meeting. Plans for the fall activities will be discussed. The sale planned for Oct. 9, for a benefit for the building and to finish financing the roof will be discussed. The fundraiser will be an auction, with Triad Auctioneers from Arlington in charge. This will start at 10:30 a.m. with a dinner at noon. "The lodges are anxious to make this first auction a success and would like anything that people are able to donate," said a spokesperson. Furniture, antiques, odds and ends are all welcome. Call Bob Taylor and Cecil Jones for more information.

We would like to thank the Heppner Chamber of Commerce for sponsoring the doctor's appreciation dessert. A special thank you to all the people who participated in the program: Louis Carlson, Kevin Erich, Larry Mills, Dr. Huber, Molly Rhea, Jay Straley, Forrie Burkenbine, Rollie Marshall, and Claudia Hughes. The Oregon Trail Commemorative Coins, scrapbook, flowers and cake were all great. Thank you also for the "prescription". Thank you to Ann Murray for coordinating the event. And thank you to all the people who took time in the middle of a summer day to help us celebrate. Also appreciated were the cards, letters and words of encouragement from those who couldn't be there. It all meant a great deal.

Morrow County Fair Board, Oregon Trail Rodeo Committee: thank you for a great day. It was fun to come home for the past queens reunion, thanks for thinking of it. Special thanks to Susie French Ward for a job well done in finding so many of the past queens.

A large pat on the back to the fair and rodeo committees and I understand the whole community for the rebuilding of the grounds. The long term plan will make a very attractive and workable grounds. The day was somewhat bittersweet though, as change often is, gone are the days of Kid pony races, pole (then cyclone) fences, people setting on car hoods to watch the action, big grand entries, but your changes are good ones, you improved the ground in the arena and the parking at this rodeo is great. Guess it's just sad to see some of the old west style gone to the new era.

Again congratulations to the whole area for the new facilities and the joint cooperation it took to get the job done, and thanks for the invitation to come home and relive old memories and renew old friendships.
