

Moonlight Sale Thursday

The Heppner merchants will be holding their annual Moonlight Sale this Thursday from 5 to 8 p.m.

Commerce will judge Halloween costumes of local business people and employees. Awards will be given for the best costumes.

FFA team places in crops contest

The Blue Mountain District Future Farmers of America Soil and Crops Contest was held in Heppner Oct. 20. The soil and crops team from Heppner, consisting of Joe Lindsay, Casey O'Brien, Chris Cookston, Brian Zumwalt, Ryan Munkers and Andy Ashbeck, placed first in the crops contest and third in the soil contest.

The contest consisted of judging and identifying soils as to origin, type, texture, structure, slope, drainage and other site characteristics and suitability classes.

"The crops contest was also challenging as FFA members had to identify 40 different kinds of weeds and crops," said FFA chapter reporter Brent Wright. The identification of either the seed or the vegetative part of the plant had to be known to correctly identify the plants.

Zane Martin and Brent Wright are preparing to travel to Kansas City, Mo. the second week in November to attend the national FFA convention. They will be joined by 40 other delegates from this district. Over 25,000 FFA members from across the United States are expected to be in attendance.

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

There were 118 people in attendance for the senior dinner October 20. There were 16 out-of-town guests, including 12 from The Dalles. The meal ticket was won by Everett Keithley, the door prize by C.K. Borner and the guest prize was won by Sandy McDonald. Members of the Christian Church served. Twenty-eight people had their blood pressures taken before the meal.

The menu for Wednesday, Nov. 3 will be macaroni and cheese, green beans, jello salad with pineapple, carrots and celery, rolls and apple crisp. Members of the Christian Life Center will serve. The Meal Site Committee will meet following the dinner. The hearing aid service will be held before dinner and the foot clinic will be held after dinner.

There weren't any card players Friday afternoon. The bus took a group of dancers to Hermiston Saturday afternoon. Seven people watched the movie "The Gods Must Be Crazy," Sunday evening.

The hospital will give a presentation about reducing the fat in your diet Thursday, Oct. 28 from 7 to 8 p.m. The presentation is free and everyone is welcome to attend.

A birthday party will be held in the dining room Sunday, Oct. 31 at 2 p.m. Everyone is invited to help Ralph Struthers celebrate his 80th birthday.

People for the Pool to have booth during Moonlight sale

People for the Pool will be selling popcorn balls and cotton candy during Heppner's Moonlight Madness Sale Thursday, Oct. 28 in front of the Heppner Post Office.

Tickets for an afghan raffle and 10 bars of silver will also be sold. All proceeds will go towards a swimming pool in Heppner. The swimming pool fund recently topped $10,000.

The project of selling bricks with laser printed names is still active with the bricks to be placed at the site of the new swimming pool. The feasibility study for the pool is hoped to be completed by the engineering company by year end.

Game night at Stokes Landing

A dinner and game night will be held at Stokes Landing Senior Center in Irrigon, Friday, Oct. 29. The dinner will be from 5 to 7 p.m. Beef stew, fresh rolls, pumpkin pie and a beverage will be served for $2.50 a person.

Pinochle and scrabble will follow at 7 p.m. A donation of $1 is asked. Refreshments and prizes are a part of the evening of recreation. People of all ages are welcome to attend.
