L-R: Collin McElligott, Cydne Tullis, Til Tullis, Abby Key and Barbara Holland

The students of Ione Elementary School recently participated in a poster contest sponsored by the Ione Post Office in observance of National Consumer Week. The U.S. Department of Consumer Affairs designated the week of October 24-30 as National Consumer's Week. The theme of the contest was "What the Post Office means to me." Entries were judged on neatness and creativity with one winner from each grade. The winner was: Abby Key, kindergarten; Barbara Holland, first grade; Cydne Tullis, second grade; Til Tullis, third grade; and Colin McElligott, fourth grade. All participants received a stamp club coloring book.

Everyone is invited to view the posters which are on display at the Ione Post Office until November 15.

Local artists, Tonya Heideman and Shirley McNary judged the contest.

Dennis O'Donnell promoted to OSP Deputy Superintendent

Oregon State Police Superintendent LeRon Howland has named captain Dennis O'Donnell as deputy superintendent of the department.

O'Donnell, 44, a graduate of Heppner High School, recently completed the Federal Bureau of Investigation National Academy and holds an associates degree in law enforcement from Treasure Valley Community College.

O'Donnell, has been with the department since 1971 when his career began in Eugene. He served as a patrol trooper and detective at Eugene until 1983 when he was promoted to sergeant and transferred to Klamath Falls where he supervised state police criminal investigation operations for Klamath and Lake Counties. In January 1987 he was promoted to lieutenant and assumed command of the narcotics section at general headquarters in Salem. In July 1989 he was promoted to captain and remained at general headquarters as assistant commander of the criminal investigation division. In July 1991 he assumed command of District II operations located at District II headquarters in Salem.

He is the son of Russ and Mary O'Donnell and was also raised by his aunt and uncle Helen and Harry O'Donnell.

Cards take lopsided victory over Falcons

By Anne Morter

The Ione Cardinals scored a lopsided homecoming victory over the Wheeler Falcons last Friday evening Oct. 29, with a final score of 64-20.

The game was a long one with senior introductions before the game and homecoming activities at the half. There were eight trips to the end zone by the Cardinals in the first half that brought the clock to a halt. But the game probably seemed endless to the Falcons who were unable to score until late in the second quarter and came within a point of being 45-pointed several times.

The Cardinals scored almost at will in the first half, leading 44-6 at the half. Not only was the offense producing points but the defense got into the act twice with scores. Jason Proudfoot ran an interception in for a score in the first quarter and Bridger Baker recovered a fumble and ran in from 30 yards out in the second quarter.

Greg Holtz led a balanced rushing attack with 93 yards, including one 72 yard touchdown run. Quarterback Jared Ashbeck picked up 69 yards; Brian Holtz had 56; Cory Baker 48; Rodney Ehrmantraut 42 and Aaron Heideman added 40. The Cards totaled 274 yards on the ground and tallied 358 yards of total offense. Ashbeck connected on five

"It was a good win before we play Dufur," commented coach Gregg Rietmann. "Dufur is going to be a tough one."

The Cardinals take on Dufur this Friday, Nov. 5 at 2 p.m. The Cardinals are in a position that they must win to get into the playoffs. Rietmann says the team is feeling good after the win over Wheeler. "We're healthy and the guys are ready to play. They want to go to the playoffs."

Lady Cardinals take victory from Falcons

By Anne Morter

The lady Cardinals hosted the Wheeler Falcons for the homecoming Friday night Oct. 29 and came away with a victory in two games 15-2, 15-13.

According to coach Greg Likens, the Cardinals dominated the first game with no mistakes, superb passing and good hitting.

"We put it together for a whole game for the first time this year," he said. They fell off the place in the second game, but unlike the Condon game, they had no serving errors to pull them down.

At the service line, the team hit 44 of 47 for 94 percent. April Taylor served 10 of 12 for nine points and five aces. Kim Bedor-tha was perfect at the serving line, scoring six points. Jamie Lovett served eight for eight for four points.

In the hitting department, the team hit 42 of 49 for 86 percent. Their kill ratio was 21 of 49 for 43 percent. Melissa McElligott led at the net with 17 of 17 hitting and 10 kills. Jamie Lovett was eight of nine in hitting with five kills.

Wheatland Pomona elects officers

By Delpha Jones

The Wheatland-Pomona Grange met in Boardman Oct. 30.

The meeting was called to order by Master Barton Clark at 10:30 a.m. Roll call of officers was held, after which Nina Staples, state deputy, and her husband were introduced and welcomed. She gave a few interesting remarks on the sales tax and on the grange building in Portland. She said that two new granges have started this past year. She spoke good words about the farmers, saying how they are decreasing in number and that they need all the support they can get, as the farmer is the backbone of the country when it comes to feeding the people. Perhaps all city people do not realize the great impact the farmer has on the world's nutrition.

The G.W.A. chairman spoke about the reports she has received and all the good things the granges are doing for the area. Activities include educational and interesting programs, dinners, maintenance of their buildings and many other worthwhile projects.

Officers were elected for the 1994-95 year. New officers are: Master-Mike Medlock, Spray Grange; overseer-Roger Scharen; lecturer-Jean Nelson and steward-Claire Buchanan, all Lexington; L.A.S.-Dot Halvorsen, Willows; A.S.-Harry Gilpin and chaplain-Eulenna Vaughn, both Greenfield; treasurer-Cecil Jones; secretary-Delpha Jones, both Lexington; gatekeeper-Willard French, Willows; ceres-Aloha Medlock, Spray; Pomona-Nyna Knighten, Willows; flora-Donna Gilpin, Greenfield; and ex-committee-Barton Clark, Kenneth Snouse and Wilma Martin. Committees will be appointed later.

Installation for all subordinate and Pomona granges of Wheatland District will be held Dec. 12 at the Lexington Grange Hall with state ex-committee member, Glanabelle Lewis of Baker County in charge. The evening will be a potluck dinner and Christmas party. Resolution #1 was a thankyou to Greenfield Grange for the fine dinner and hospitality. A cake walk was enjoyed and a short program of Halloween memories of which the "old outhouse" played a prominent part. Dot Halvorsen recited a poem about an outhouse.

The grange is selling raffle tickets to help Gary Fordice who is quite ill. The group purchased 10 tickets for the benefit. All proceeds will go to help his medical Roll call was as follows: Lexington six; Willows two; Greenfield seven and Sandy two. The next Pomona will be January 29 at the Lexington Grange Hall. The meeting will begin at 10:30 a.m.
