Guest speaker at Baptist church

Rich and Cheri Strahm

Rich and Cheri Strahm, missionaries to the Philippines, serving with the Conservative Baptist Foreign Mission Society of Wheaton, Ill., will be speaking about their ministry at Lexington Baptist Church on Nov. 28 at 11 a.m. and 6 p.m.

The Strahms arrived in the Philippines in early 1984 and were involved in a church planting ministry. They helped establish New Life Christian Church in 1987. The church is now self-governing with a Filipino pastor and a daughter church of its own.

During their second term, the Strahms planted two churches in Alabang, Metro Manila. One of these churches, Alabang Bible Christian Fellowship, is comprised of upper-class professionals who have been an influence in the government and business. The employees of these English-speaking Filipinos have been formed into a growing second church, which now has its own Filipino pastor.

The Strahms look forward to returning to the Philippines in January 1994.

Tholbergs celebrate 50th

Raymond and Rosella Tholberg

Raymond and Rosella Tholberg of Heppner celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Oct. 23, 1993 with a party and dance at the Pilot Rock Community Center.

The couple's daughter and son-in-law, Carol and Owen Erickson of Pilot Rock served as hosts.

The band included Gordon Tholberg, brother from Pendleton and Ralph Jacobson, a cousin from Spokane, WA.

Many friends and relatives attended, including Mrs. Tholberg's three sisters from California.

The Tholbergs were married Oct. 30, 1943, in Pendleton. They have lived in Heppner for 43 years. He worked as a lumber grader at Kinzua Mill and she has been a homemaker.

They have four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Area youth attend workshop

Nearly 40 youth and adults attended the poise and grooming workshop "Best Foot Forward" sponsored by the Morrow County 4-H leaders at Riverside High School.

Topics and presenters at the November 6 event included: "How to Make a Good Impression" by Shane Fritz, Ahna Lietke and Karrie Lloyd; "Making the Right Moves" by Layla Vaughn; "Skin Care Basics" by Sandy Eggen, "Hair Care Basics" by Brenda Dyer; "Line and Proportion Workshop" by Carol Michael and Carley Drake; and "Jewel Accessories" by Michael and Glaya Baker. Registration was managed by Rose Ann Daltoso and Ann Marie Files. Refreshments and snack break were organized by Barbara Wetherell and the "Spoons and Spools" 4-H club.

Participants included Abby Lietke, Nancy and Kimi Allen, Michelle Brandt and Jessica Rencken, all from Irrigon; Kevin Baker, Brandi Purcell, Jessie Bray, Shannon Wetherell, Jennifer Harrell, Beth Skoubo, Jackie Harrell, Sheree Steiner, Lara Fritz, Sara Fritz, Jody McDaniel, Ashleigh Lloyd and Ashley Crowell, all from Boardman; Shelby, Jessica and Maureen Krebs, from Cecil; Katie Tworek, Nova Rietmann, Marie Tworek, all Ione; Amy Drake, Heppner; Dawn and Debby Sheirbon, Lexington and Cyn-da Stevens and Angie Wanger, Hermiston.

Participants at the workshop learned how following guidelines for good health and time management can increase self confidence and poise. They identified ways to use principles of design to enhance body proportions, and made a jeweled pin to use as an accessory for clothing on hand.
