The bride is the daughter of Jim and Barbara Bloodsworth of Heppner and Jim and Vickie Devine of Madras. The groom's parents are Larry and Ann Lawler and Ray Widmer all of Portland.

The bride wore a full-length white gown with an embroidered, sequin and pearl bodice. The off-the-shoulder sleeves were also accented with pearls as was her veil. She carried an arm bouquet of red roses.

Patricia Ann Jensen, the bride's sister, of Pendleton, was the matron of honor. Best man was Kurt Widmer, brother of the groom, Portland.

A picnic lunch for family and friends followed the ceremony at the Tilly Jane Camp grounds after which the couple left on a four-day hiking trip around Mt. Hood.

Home care week celebrated

Pioneer Memorial Home Health, along with agencies nationwide joins Congress and President Bill Clinton in celebrating America's caregivers during National Home Care Week, November 28 through Dec. 4.

Proclaimed by an act of congress and by President Bill Clinton, National Home Care Week provides the opportunity to pay tribute to the thousands of nurses, therapists, home care aides, volunteers and physicians who dedicate their lives to bring the community the highest quality health care at home. In addition, it provides the opportunity for agencies to focus national attention on the issues of home care.

"The people who work for our agency devote not only their time and expertise, but their love, care and understanding, all of which have made a significant difference in the lives of their patients," said Molly Rhea, director of Pioneer Memorial Home Health. "It is appropriate that we take this time to salute the heroes and heroines who dedicate their lives to serving others."

Pioneer Memorial Home Health was originally established through a Rural Health Initiative Grant awarded to Morrow, Gilliam and Wheeler counties in 1977, and was known as Tri-County Home Health Commission. In 1987 Tri-County Home Health petitioned the Morrow County Medical Board to be brought under the auspices of Pioneer Memorial Hospital and to function as a department of the hospital while continuing to serve all of Morrow and Gilliam counties and northern Wheeler county. Employing 13 nurses, home health aides and physical therapists, the agency offers comprehensive home care from the most basic assistance with daily living to sophisticated high-tech medical treatment.

Chamber Chatter

By Claudia Hughes, Chamber Manager

December is such a busy time. A goal, yet to be achieved, is convincing the community-at-large to dispose of all meetings during the Advent season to give everyone time to sit back and reflect on the true meaning of Christmas and to make quality time for other human beings.

Thanksgiving has passed and our town is alight with Christmas, thanks to Bill Kuhn, Tom Springer of Heppner T.V., Columbia Basin and chamber volunteers who donated time and pickups. The annual lighting contest for homes and businesses will be judged on Sunday, Dec. 19 so prepare to "deck the halls".

Chamber will again be hosting 'Lunch With Santa' on Sunday, Dec. 12, to enable mom, dad, grandma and grandpa to do some shopping alone. It's exciting to see the many unique, practical, creative, and fun Christmas gift ideas in our stores. Shop early at home and enjoy more time for preparation. Saturday's Christmas Artificery and wreath workshop will help get the community in the spirit.

In celebration of the season, Chamber, GEODC and CAPECO will jointly host a Christmas Open House on the afternoon of December 15 from 1 to 4 p.m. Everyone is welcome to drop by to see what each entity is all about and to sign up for the doorprize.

Nominations are now open for chamber board of directors. Heppner Chamber is a non-profit organization dedicated to creating a positive environment where people and businesses thrive. New ideas and new faces are always welcome. We look forward to presenting our current members with new member plaques before the end of the year. These plaques will be ongoing to the year 2000.

Thought for the week: The biggest difficulty with mankind today is that our knowledge has increased so much faster than our wisdom.
