Rodeo Court to raffle ring

Princesses Jossie Evans (l) and Char Coe display Black Hills Gold ring.

The 1994 Morrow County Fair and Oregon Trail Pro Rodeo Court are once again raffling a Black Hills Gold ring. Tickets are on sale for $1 each or six for $5. Drawing for the ring will be at the Town and Country Banquet in January.

Tickets may be purchased from Queen Staci O'Brien, Princesses Char Coe, Jossie Evans, Kimberly Bedortha or from Peterson's Jewelers.

People for the Pool need baked goods

People for the Pool will have a table at the annual Artifactory Dec. 4 at the Morrow County Fairgrounds. Baked goods and homemade candies are needed to sell to help raise funds for a swimming pool in Heppner.

Baked goods or homemade candies may be dropped off at Green Feed & Seed on Friday or brought to the artifactory Saturday morning.

Around 50 sixth, seventh and eighth graders and 45 fourth and fifth graders participated in a basketball clinic sponsored by the Alumni Association over Thanksgiving weekend.

HCC to meet

The next meeting of the Heppner Coordinating Council will be Dec. 14 at 7:30 a.m. in the GEODC office.

The agenda will include discussion of the U.S. Forest Service forest restoration funding and range allotment management plans. The council will also be updated on the RV park, mini-park and downtown improvement projects.

The public is welcome to attend.

There will not be a meeting Dec. 28. It has been cancelled.

Lutherans plan Advent service

"A Savior Christ the Lord" is the theme of mid-week Advent services held at Valby Lutheran Church on Wednesday and Hope on Thursday. Both services begin at 7:30 p.m. A series of three mid-week worship services will begin December 1 and end Dec. 16. Each week will emphasize one of the words in the theme: "Savior", "Christ" and "The Lord". Offerings at these services will go to the work of the Oregon Synod of the ELCA.

Sunday, Dec. 5 the congregation of Valby will hold adult Bible class at 8:15 a.m. The class is studying the Letter to the Hebrews. At 9 a.m. the congregation will gather for celebration of Holy Communion. Pastor Hobing will preach on the theme of "Prepare the Way" based on scripture reading of St. Mark 1:1-8.

Hope Lutheran church will celebrate Holy Communion at 11 a.m. The children will practice the Christmas program at 11 a.m. Members and friends are urged to bring mittens and hats to benefit children of the area. A special hat and mitten tree will be displayed in the main entrance way of the church building.

MSWCD meeting slated

Morrow SWCD/Weed Control District will hold a regular meeting Tuesday, Dec. 7 at the Irrigon city hall.

Items on the agenda include the 94-95 budget review, an annual meeting review and a review of the Goodyear Report.

The meeting will begin at 1 p.m.

Snowmobile club kicks off season

The Four Corners Snowmobile Club kicks off the 1993-94 season with its first meeting on Dec. 8 at 7 p.m. at the Heppner Elks Club.

Members are urged to pay their state and local dues.

For more information contact president Gene Orwick or secretary Della Heideman.

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

Millie Hanna won the birthday prize at the senior dinner Nov. 24. Joe Engleman won the guest prize, Rose Marie Buschke the door prize and Cecil the free meal ticket.

There were 69 present for dinner and eight meals were sent out. Members of the Baptist and Christian Missionary Fellowship churches served.

The menu for December 8 will be turkey ala king over rice, tossed salad with carrots, muffins, applesauce and cookies. Members of the Episcopal church will serve. The senior center board will meet following the meal.

The senior center office was closed Thursday and Friday for the Thanksgiving holiday. There was no movie Sunday night.

The seniors will have a table at the Artifactory and ask that as many seniors as possible bring crafts or foods, jelly, candy, cookies, etc. The drawing for the tree skirt will be held at the Artifactory. Tickets are still available at the senior center.

The Red Cross blood drawing will be held at the center Dec. 9.
