

Students win bookmark contest Alumni Assoc. plans dinner

Heppner High School students (l-r) Rondi Robinson, Tracy Blodgett, Brent Wright and Troy Wilson, were recent winners in the Bookmark Design Contest at the local level, sponsored by the Oregon Reading Association. Local school winners advance to the state level.

The subject of the bookmarks were related to reading. All entries were judged on the basis of originality, neatness, and relationship to the theme of reading.

The Heppner alumni association will host a roast beef dinner at the Elks club Saturday evening, Jan. 1, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets are $10 per person and must be purchased in advance from John McCabe 676-5231, by Dec. 23.

Guest speaker will be John VanWinkle from the class of 1968. Live music will be provided by the yesteryears band "Henchmen" featuring Roger Leonig, Kathy Melby Turner, Chuck Nelson, and Tim Smith. The public is invited to attend the dinner and dance.

Ione Boosters plan chili feed

By Anne Morter

The Ione Booster Club will sponsor a chili feed this Saturday, Dec. 18 during the Ione-Heppner games. Dinner, consisting of chili, salad, and cornbread with fresh local honey, will be served from 4-6 p.m. in the Ione cafeteria.

Proceeds will go to the Ione Booster Club to help fund athletics and activities at Ione High School.

The Booster Club will also have a station where Booster Club jackets will be offered for sale as well as membership and signature page sign-ups. Last weekend, the Booster Club raffled off two jackets, won by George Miller and Brian Sullivan.

Sports fans from both schools are invited to take advantage of this dinner special.

Morrow County students selected for "Who's Who"

Thirty-one Morrow County students have been included in the 27th annual edition of the "Who's Who Among American High School Students" 1992-93.

Qualifying students are: Boardman-Marc Andreason, Sean Roberts, Marc Evans and Chris Tallman; Irrigon-Andrew Hermanns; Ione-Crystal Minster and April Taylor; Lexington-Dani Hill, Donnie Pointer, Missy Wallace, Troy Wilson, Ryan Munkers, Jim Tellechea, Laurel Webber-Gray; Heppner-Patty Anderson, Tony Becket, Josh Clark, Kelsie Evans, Erin Fishburn, Aleida Goodyear, Jenny Krein, April Rollis, Brent Wright, Kara Ansoategui, Jeremy Clark, Shawn Fostforth, Ben Ewing, Shawn Foster, Ryan Pence and Alecia Tarnasky.

"Who's Who", published by Educational Communications Inc., Lake Forest, Illinois, is the largest high school recognition publication in the country. Students are nominated by high school principals and guidance counselors, national youth groups, churches or by the publishing company based upon students' performances in scholarship award contests or extracurricular activities.

Final selection is determined on the basis of criteria which include high school achievement in academics and leadership in school activities, athletics or community service. Traditionally, 99 percent of "Who's Who" students have a grade point average of 'B' or better and 97 percent are college bound.

The 27th edition of "Who's Who" published in 16 regional volumes, features nearly 725,000 students or just over five percent of the nation's 12,000,000 high school students. They represent approximately 15,000 of the 22,000 public, private and parochial high schools in the country.

"Who's Who" students also compete for $125,000 in scholarship awards and participate in the publication's annual opinion poll of teen attitudes. The book is distributed to up to 15,000 high schools, colleges, universities and public libraries throughout the country.
