Mac Hi Pioneers outrun Mustangs

The Heppner Mustangs ran into a team that likes to run and press like the Mustangs and that spelled defeat, Friday, December 17, as the visiting Mac Hi Pioneers scored a 76-66 victory over the Mustangs. Heppner jumped out to a 23-17 first quarter lead as Joe Healy scored eight of his game and season-high 24 points. The Mustangs' press was effective as

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

There were 92 people present for the senior dinner Dec. 15, with one guest. Ten meals were sent out. Members of the Lutheran Church served. Lois Allyn won the meal ticket, Betty Marquardt the door prize and Eva Mabbot of Pendleton, the guest prize.

The menu for the birthday dinner Dec. 29 will be barbecued chicken, tator tots, three bean salad, fresh fruit, cake and ice cream. Members of the Mormon church will serve.

The beautiful wreath hanging in the senior center office is a Christmas gift to the center from Corol Mitchell and Merri Reamer. Children from the elementary school toured the halls and sang to the tenants in their rooms last week. What a lovely group of singers they are.

Due to the VCR or the TV not working properly there was no movie shown Sunday night.

Merry Christmas everyone.

Fillies get revenge over cross county rival Pirates

Char Coe (32) swats the ball away from Torrie Philippi

The Heppner Fillies got sweet revenge Saturday night, Dec. 11, when they beat the Class 3A Riverside Pirates 53-39.

Heppner led by 23 points at the half and coasted. Junior Kelsie Evans led the Fillies with 12 points and six steals. Jenny Krein added 10 points and 10 rebounds while Holly Eckman had eight assists for Heppner. Every Filly scored in the balanced attack.

Heppner lost 5'7" junior Rondi Robinson with a knee injury during the game. She will be out for the season.

Teen dance Sat., Dec. 30

The Heppner Oregon Together Group is sponsoring a winter dance at the Heppner High School cafeteria on Thursday, December 30 from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. The dance is open to students of Ione and Heppner High School students and recent '93 graduates home for the holidays. Music is by Dan Burns and 3-D Productions.

The Heppner Masonic Lodge

NO. 69, the Soroptimist International of Heppner and student council of Heppner High will provide free non alcoholic drinks and snacks. The cost is $1 per person.

This is one of four non-alcoholic and non-drug dances sponsored during the year for the youth of the community by the Heppner Oregon Together group and other local organizations.

Have a Wonderful Christmas

It's our pleasure to say "thanks" and to wish you all the best!

Morrow County Abstract & Title

Heppner's Leonard Brittner blocks shot of Mac Hi player

it slowed the quick Pioneers.

Mac Hi turned the tables, running to a 42-40 halftime lead with a 25-17 second quarter burst. Senior guard Alim Meza, with eight points, and Joe Parks, a 6'4" senior with nine points, paced the Pioneers in the quarter.

Mac Hi, which has beaten both Enterprise and Weston-McEwen in the pre-season, kept up the pressure in the third quarter. The Mustangs couldn't keep up the blistering pace and the deep Pioneer bench and Mac Hi jumped out to a nine point lead.

Parks scored eight more of his game high 25 points in the quarter. Meza, a cat-quick guard, ended the game with 19 counters and Eric White added 12 points. Rick Koffler was the only other Mustang in double figures with 14 points.

The Pioneers shot a sizzling 53 percent from the field on 31-59 shooting. The Mustangs kept pace the first half, shooting 41 percent but cooled off to 30 percent in the second half.

The loss was the second for the Mustangs against 3A schools.
