Nursing home residents enjoy annual Christmas concert

Jeanne Berretta, Ann Murray and Sharla Erich entertained Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home residents with Christmas music at the Berretta home Dec. 20. The Berretta family has made the open house an annual event. This year, the Berrettas' two sons, Matt and Vincent, also entertained the guests, with Matt playing the saxophone and Vincent, the piano. The Berrettas' daughter, Gretchen videotaped the guests and their attendants as they arrived. Hot chocolate and cookies were served.

1 CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank everyone who sent cards, offered prayers and help, and telephone calls towards my stay in the hospital and recovery. It's so nice to have such good friends. Thank you Steve Wagenblast 12-23-1c

Morrow County Health Department staff and the now-much-warmer children and their grateful parents wish to say thank you very much and muchas gracias to:

St. Williams Catholic Church for their generous monetary donation and for the help of a certain couple in shopping for and sorting coats (and for your encouragement with frequent reminders of coming storms);

To those generous friends and co-workers, who cleaned their closets to help us find enough coats;

To Family Bargain Center for their very generous discount of the over 60 coats we purchased there;

To First Interstate Bank, Heppner Branch, for writing a grant for additional funds;

To our families who helped us sort and deliver coats and put up with our long hours away from home.

We wish you many blessings during this Christmas Season and through the New Year. We applaud your giving spirit as an example for all of us. 12-22-1c
