The game against Arlington held in Ione Saturday, Jan. 15 was no contest for the lady Cardinals who equalled the Honkers' game total in the first quarter. With liberal playing time for the second team, the Cards ran away with a 72-24 win.

Michelle Walborn of Arlington was the game's leading scorer with 22 points, all but two of her team's total. For the Cards, April Taylor was high scorer with 15. Jamie Lovett was the only other player in double figures with 13. Once again the rebounding story was all Cardinals. Suzy Heideman tallied 12 as the Cards drilled the Honkers 53-24. Becky Wagenblast dished out five assists and Mary Jane McCarty had two steals to pace the team in those departments.

The lady Cards shot 32 of 76 for 42 percent from the floor. At the line, they shot a dismal seven of 24 for 29 percent. Arlington had a rough shooting night, making just nine of 45 for 20 percent from the floor and six of 12 for 50 percent from the line.

"I got a chance to look at my second team a little more," said coach Dana Heideman. "It gave them playing time at the varsity level which is a plus for them," he added.

The Cardinals host Helix this Friday, Jan. 21 and travel to Wheeler on Saturday, Jan. 22.

Dance team plans clinic

The Community Dance Team has planned a dance clinic for girls in grades kindergarten through sixth grade.

Practice will be held Jan. 24 through 28 beginning at 3:30 p.m. at the Heppner Elementary school multipurpose room. The girls will perform Saturday, Jan. 29 during half time of the Heppner High School boys' varsity basketball game against Wahtonka.

Cost for the clinic is $8 each. For more information contact Erin Fishburn, 676-5246.

Ione Cardinals defeat Blue Devils

By Anne Morter

The Ione Cardinals started their league season off on the right foot last weekend defeating Condon 80-41 on Friday, Jan. 14 and Arlington on Saturday, Jan. 15 at home.

In Condon on Friday, the Cardinals had five players in double figures as they cruised to a victory. Jason Halvorsen, with seven of eight shooting from the field and parked on the bench in foul trouble for much of the game, led the Cards with 16 points. Jason Proudfoot made three three-point shots and was fouled on two other three point attempts where he made five of his six free throws for 14 points. Jim Logan also had 14 and Jared Ashbeck and Aaron Heideman kicked in 13 apiece. Coach Del LaRue was pleased with the balanced scoring. "It makes it tough for the other team to concentrate on one guy," he noted.

Aaron Heideman had a fine rebounding effort, leading the team with 16 boards. Logan led with eight assists but there were plenty more to go around as Jared Ashbeck had five and Proudfoot added four. Jake Bacon had four steals while Ashbeck, Nathan Heideman and Aaron Heideman each had three. Halvorsen had seven blocked shots in the game.

The Cards had a hot shooting night making 31 of 65 for 48 percent from the floor and 13 of 18 for 72 percent from the line. The Blue Devils shot 16 of 47 for 34 percent from the field and five of 12 for 42 percent from the line. "We got started a little bit slowly. We had trouble getting the ball in the hole," said LaRue. "But things came around. We played good defense," he added.
