1 CARD OF THANKS

The family of Edna Bailey wish to extend our sincere thanks to all our friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness, consisting of cards, phone calls, food and flowers at the loss of our mother.

We'll always appreciate the care she received from Dr. Ed., Dr. Jeanne Berretta, P.A. Mark Goodboy and members of the staff of the Pioneer Memorial Hospital, nursing home and clinic. The quality of care has always been outstanding.

Thanks to all her friends at the Heppner meal site for the lovely thoughts and cards.

We gratefully acknowledge Geneva Mathews for her beautiful uplifting service and music.

The professionalism and expertise of Pat Sweeney and staff at the Sweeney Mortuary has left us with everlasting peaceful memories.

Last, but not least, to Ralph Marlatt and his helpers, the caliber of care in preparation at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery was no less than superior.

Sincerely,
Chuck and Betty Bailey

The loss of my husband, Melvin Lyle "Pinky" Allyn, was a sad occasion, made much easier by the love and support of many friends, my cousins from Orofino, Idaho, and especially Pastor Glenn and Phyllis Anderson of Lexington Baptist Church. Special thanks also go to Laura Burnside-McElligott who played piano for the funeral service and Matthew Jepsen who played trumpet. My husband liked jazz music, and they sent him to glory with the music he loved.

Thanks also to Ione Legion Post 95 and Tom Bedortha, and Heppner Legion Post and Ed Baker for the flag ceremony and taps.

May God bless you all for helping me through a tragic time.
Lois M. Allyn

To the Heppner Chamber of Commerce:

I am most honored by the Man of the Year award I received at the Town and Country banquet.

It is a great privilege to live in the Heppner community and have the opportunity to work with its wonderful people to make it an even better place to live.

I look forward with anticipation and commitment to fulfilling Dr. Jonas Salk's comment, "The reward for work well done is the opportunity to do more."

Thank you.
