The Heppner Mustangs got revenge for their only league defeat as they rolled over the visiting Weston-McEwen TigerScots, 71-50, Friday, Feb. 18, in their last home game. In the process the Mustangs clinched the CBC championship and the first place seed into the district tournament Friday and Saturday, Feb. 25 and 26 at the Pendleton Convention Center in Pendleton. Junior guard Trent Hughes, sparked the Mustangs to an 18-18 first quarter tie with seven of his 12 points on the night.

The Mustangs used some great defense and solid offense to get a 34-25 halftime lead. Sam Sumner had 10 of his game high 19 points in the first half and got the TigerScots 6'8" Aaron Verkist and 6'7" Bill Albert in foul trouble.

The Mustangs were aided by the steady play of senior Rick Koffler, who had eight assists and junior Chris Dickenson who came off the bench for nine points and played great defense, along with Hughes, on Curt Sloan. Sloan and Louie Quaepts each had 11 points for the TigerScots.

Heppner will play Sherman County Friday, Feb. 25, in an afternoon game at the Pendleton Convention Center. The winner will play again Saturday afternoon for the District 7 2A championship and the top seed into the Regional Tournament the following weekend in Pendleton.

Fillies headed for playoffs

Kelsie Evans goes for layin for Fillies

The Heppner Fillies secured a spot in the District 2A playoffs this weekend, but not as the number one seed, as the Fillies lost to the visiting Weston-McEwen TigerScots last Friday, Feb. 18, 56-51, in a disappointing last home game.

The Fillies came out hot making their first six baskets for a quick 12-0 lead but the TigerScots answered back cutting the Fillies lead to three points at the end of the first quarter and hung on to the lead going into the half TigerScots 24, Heppner 23.

Despite her third quarter injury when she fell hard on her knee Weston-McEwen star Tammy Pupo finished the game with 14 points for the TigerScots. TigerScot coach Mike Lieullen said that Pupo will probably not see any action during district tournament but hopes to have her back, should they advance.

Jodi Johnston and Holli Eckman each scored 12 points for the Fillies.

The Junior Varsity beat Weston-McEwen's JV team in a close game 38-36.

Mustangs pound Vikings 66-41

Trent Hughes (15) grabs rebound against Vikings while Dwayne Dunaway looks on

The Heppner Mustangs closed out their CBC regular season traveling to Umatilla, Saturday, Feb. 19 for a 66-41 victory. The Mustangs finished the regular season with an 11-1 league record and a 16-4 season record.

The Mustangs broke on top for a 14-9 first quarter lead in a ratty start.

The second quarter was all Sam Sumner. The 6'3" senior, who is averaging 13.5 points over the last seven games, exploded for 13 points in the quarter and had as many points as the entire Viking team at the half. Heppner led 33-17.

The second half was more of the same. Senior Dwayne Dunaway led the Mustangs and finished with 13 points and nine rebounds. Sumner ended up with 23 points and eight rebounds and junior Chirs Dickenson grabbed seven boards.

Junior Shawn Tracy paced the Vikings with 10 points.
