

BMCC offers interesting classes

(L), wool to be made into slippers (R)

By Anne Morter
Blue Mountain Community College has some interesting offerings coming up soon in the area, such as a felting class and shoebox to photo album class. People interested in the status of classes, dates, places and times should contact BMCC coordinator Anne Morter 422-7040 for more information or to register.

Felting is an old time craft and students will start with raw wool, process it and end up with a pair of slippers, all in four hours time. The class will be held April 30 at Heppner Elementary School from 12 noon to 4 p.m. Cost is $10 with a $6 lab fee paid to the instructor.

"Shoebox to Photo Album" is another four-hour class that will help a person organize and display their favorite photographs in safe, long term storage. Instructor Shannon Rust of Echo will share tips on cropping, labeling, photo journalism and page decoration. If you are interested in preserving your favorite photos and organizing your life at the same time, this class is for you, says Morter. Tuition is $10 with a $5 lab fee paid to the instructor at the class. Students are asked to bring a selection of favorite photographs to the class, which is scheduled for Saturday, April 23, from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the district office in Lexington.

"With spring term well underway, I am now recruiting for Summer term classes," concludes Morter. Give her a call if there's a class you would like to see in the area.

The first place winners from each division of the district contest will qualify to participate in the state of Oregon spelling contest to be held at the Oregon State Fair September 3.

The public is welcome to observe the district contest. Linda Shaw is in charge of local arrangements. Refreshments will be served at the end of competition.
