Ione tennis teams compete at Helix

By Anne Morter
The Ione Tennis teams competed at the Helix Invitational Tennis Tournament last Saturday, April 16, held at Blue Mountain Community College.

Thomas Voegeding ended the day, vying for third place against Doug Fine of Helix. In a close, three-set match, Fine prevailed, 3-6, 6-4, 6-4 for the third place spot while Voegeding placed fifth. To get there, he defeated Jeff Sackett of Weston-McEwen in the opener, 8-0, then defeated John West of Mac-Hi, 8-2. He then played eventual tourney champion Nick Quaini of Helix and lost, setting up the game for third.

In boy's singles Kelly Morgan and Jory Crowell lost to Sanguino-Black of Umatilla in the opening round 4-8 and were eliminated by Fuller-Rolfe of Sherman County.

In girl's singles, Heidi Orem followed the same path as Voegeding, losing the third place match and placing fifth. She opened with an 8-4 win over Holly Krokosz of Hood River. She then downed Grace Baillester of Umatilla 8-5 before losing to eventual winner, Lisa Monkus of Stanfield, 6-2, 6-0. She then fell to Stephanie Reider of Mac-Hi for the third spot, 4-8.

Jessi Stefani won her opener 8-2 over Julie Trieblehorn of Sherman County before meeting the eventual tourney runner-up, Saluna Godinez. Stefani lost that match 4-8. She then played Hillary Greer of Weston-McEwen for fourth but lost 6-8.

In girl's doubles, Angie Ball and Camie Crum lost their opener 1-8 to Kadyk Powers from Umatilla and were eliminated with another defeat by Schwarz-Schwarz of Helix.

Celeste Owen and Laurel Temple lost to Zerba-Wimberly of Mac-Hi 3-8 in the opening round. They returned to defeat Pulumbo-McPherson of Mac-Hi 8-3, before losing a tight match to Wall-Arduin of Hood River 9-8 with an 8-2 tiebreaker.

St. Patrick's Senior Center Bulletin Board

There were 135 people in attendance at the senior dinner April 13 including 20 visitors from Hermiston. A visitor from Japan came with them. He was interested in learning about senior meal sites as they are needed in Japan also. Three meals were sent out. Ed Baker won the meal ticket, Floss Watkins the door prize and Hidekiyo Iwata from Japan received the guest prize. Members of the Episcopal Church served. The senior center board met following the meal. The hostesses for April are Margaret Dubuque and Lynn Bibby, not Luke Bibby, as previously stated.

The menu for the birthday dinner April 27 will be oven fried chicken, mashed potatoes and gravy, rolls, green beans, jello fruit salad, cake and ice cream. Members of the First Christian Church will serve.

There were eight ladies present for the Sunday night movie "Five Mile Creek".

Ten volunteers folded newsletters for the extension Thursday morning, April 14. The Focus On Health group also met later that morning to continue plans for the Health Fair. The next Focus meeting will be April 28 at 11 a.m. Health Choices Inc. will also meet that day from 3 to 6 p.m. in the senior center dining room.

Other dates to remember: Monday, Bible study-10:30 a.m., quilting-1-4 p.m.; Tues. and Thurs., exercise, 10 a.m.; Wednesday, senior dinner-noon; Friday cards-1 p.m. and Sunday movie-7 p.m.

Some substitute volunteers are needed to fill in on half day shifts when the regular volunteers are ill or away. Anyone wishing to help out should come by the office or call 676-9030 to put your name on the list.

Grange week April 24-30

The week of April 24 through 30 has been set aside for Grange Week, announces Robert E. Barrow, master of The National Grange of the Order of Patrons of Husbandry.

Barrow cites the Grange's interest in agriculture, its grassroots involvement in legislative policies, its leadership role in community improvement, service and development and its achievement of positive change through action.

Barrow invites neighbors and friends to "find out what Grange is all about."
