Jason L. Halvorsen
The funeral for Jason L. Halvorsen was held Wednesday, April 27 at the Lone High School gymnasium. Concluding service and interment followed at High View Cemetery in Lone.

Jason, 16, of Lone, died Sunday, April 24, 1994 in a motor vehicle accident near Echo.

He was born Aug. 11, 1977 at Hermiston to Frank and Cathy Cannon Halvorsen. He grew up in Lone and was a sophomore at Lone High School.

He was a member of the National Honor Society, the Lone Ecumenical Youth Group and had recently been in Portland serving the homeless with the group.

He played football and basketball and participated in track. He was first team, all-league in basketball and was also voted most valuable player by his teammates. He was all-league honorable mention in football on both offensive and defensive teams. He enjoyed water skiing and camping.

Survivors include his parents Frank and Cathy Halvorsen of Lone; brother, Ryan of Pendleton; sister Allison of Lone; paternal grandmother Dot Halvorsen of Lone and maternal grandparents Pete and Laurel Cannon, of Lone. His grandfather Lewis Halvorsen, died earlier.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Jason Halvorsen Memorial, c/o Bank of Eastern Oregon, P.O. Box 106, Lone, 97843.

Sweeney Mortuary, Heppner, was in charge of arrangements.

Gloria Maynard
Graveside funeral services were held for Gloria Maynard on Wednesday, April 27 in the Bob Creek Cemetery near Homestead. She died April 24, 1994 at Pioneer Memorial Hospital in Heppner.

Mrs. Maynard was born Nov. 26, 1937 on the Clover Creek Ranch to William and Etta Marie

Schultz. She married Richard Darrell Maynard in Vale on June 8, 1954. He preceded her in death on June 11, 1966. She was a housewife and devoted mother and loved to crochet. She would crochet afgans and then give them to family and friends as gifts. She loved children, especially her grandchildren. She also enjoyed the outdoors.

She is survived by her children: Robert of Baker City; Barbara Hicks of Prairie City and Bonnie Crill of Star, Idaho; her brothers Bill Schultz of Prairie City and Reese Schults of Heppner; sisters Marie Turner of Heppner, Betty Galbriath of Joseph, Peggy Bradford of Prairie City, Cheryl Krantz of Baker City and six grandchildren.

The Monroe Mortuary, Baker City, was in charge of arrangements.

A.K. "Lucky" Felt
A.K. "Lucky" Felt, 68, of Heppner died Thursday, April 21, 1994 at Pioneer Memorial Hospital in Heppner.

Memorial services were held Monday, April 25 at the Heppner Masonic Temple.

Mr. Felt was born Sept. 2, 1925, in Astoria to Axel and Anna Kron Felt. He grew up and attended schools in Astoria, Burns and Grants Pass.

He worked in the shipyards for a time then entered the U.S. Marine Corps during World War II.

On Oct. 25, 1943, he married Velma B. Haskins at Reno, Nev. They lived at Merrill, Madras, Hermiston and had been residents of Heppner for 10 years.

Mr. Felt has served as administrator of Pioneer Memorial Hospital from 1979 to 1983 and was a board member of the Pioneer Memorial Hospital Foundation.

He was active in the Shriners' All-Star Football games for many years and was a strong supporter of Heppner High School athletic events.

Register now

Registration for the 1994 Extension Mini-College June 13-16 at OSU is running ahead of last year, reports Betty Miner, coordinator of the program sponsored by the OSU Extension Service.

This means that those planning to attend should register soon, "because classes are filled on a first come basis and some are nearing capacity," Miner advises. Registrations are due no later than May 20.

Topics include such subjects as savings and investments, earthquake readiness, American families abroad, nutrition, Oregon lighthouses and grandparenting. In addition, Mini-College participants will attend a special combined session each morning.

Complete programs, including registration forms, are available from the Morrow County office of the OSU Extension Service, PO Box 397, Heppner, or call 676-9642 or 1-800-342-3664.
