

Soroptimist award scholarships Rolling Hills run April 30 'Art About Ag' show on display

Gretchen Berretta
Gretchen Berretta has been selected to receive first place in the Soroptimist Youth Citizenship Award. Gretchen, a Heppner High School senior, will receive a $150 scholarship.

Gretchen is currently student body president, was junior class president and freshman and sophomore class treasurer. She is a member of the dance team, the Outdoor Club and the OSSUM Pipeline. She is reporter for the National Honor Society and has been listed on the honor roll. She attends Hope Lutheran Church where she has been a Sunday school teacher. She received the principal's leadership award, the NCTE writing award and participated in the Knowledge Master contest.

The daughter of Drs. Ed and Jeanne Berretta, Heppner, Gretchen, 18, plans to attend Portland State University, majoring in education administration.

Heidi Orem
Heidi Orem of Ione was second place winner of the Soroptimist Youth Citizenship Award. She received a $100 scholarship.

Heidi, the daughter of Joe and Anita Orem of Ione, is a senior at Ione High School. She is a member of National Honor Society, the Future Business Leaders of America, and the IHS tennis and basketball teams. She is also a member of the Ione Youth Group.

Heidi, who spent last year as an exchange student in Germany, intends to major in special education at college. She plans to become a special education teacher for the hearing impaired.

The Rolling Hills Run will be held in Heppner this Saturday, April 30. This 5 and 10 K run/walk event is a fund raiser benefitting the south Morrow County emergency medical response teams based in Heppner, Lexington and Ione.

Registrations will be taken from 7 to 8:30 a.m. at the grade school the day of the race. The race will begin at 9 a.m. The Rolling Hills Run follows a course that winds along Hinton Creek over gentle hills. It begins at the Heppner Grade School and ends in the vicinity of Les Schwab Tire Center.

For those who have not pre-registered entry fees may be paid at the registration table. Fees for the race are $15 per participant with breakfast and a T-shirt included or $10 without the T-shirt. Discounts are given for additional runners from the same family although a $2 surcharge is levied for those who wait until the day of the race to register.

Plaques, ribbons, special awards and door prizes will be awarded to walk/run participants at a breakfast open to the public

Ione booster club to meet

The Ione Booster Club has planned a meeting for Thursday, April 28, at 7:30 p.m. at Beecher's.

Items on the agenda will include the adult prom scheduled for Saturday, May 7, and the upcoming budget cuts in the school sports program.

The public is encouraged to support emergency medical services in south Morrow County and may purchase a T-shirt, enjoy breakfast and watch the runners. A breakfast of scrambled eggs, ham, French toast, juice and coffee will be served beginning at 8 a.m. at the Heppner Elks Club. Price for non runners is $4 breakfast and $8 for a T-shirt, which may be purchased at the breakfast. The T-shirts, with their distinctive Rolling Hills Run logo, are in new colors this year.

"Celebrate fitness by participating in this annual event," said Bill Sheirbon, organizer for the event. "Runners and walkers of all ages enjoy this pleasant course. Whether you would like a stroll before breakfast, are looking for competition to test your abilities or just want to enjoy breakfast with the runners and your neighbors this event has something for everyone," concluded Sheirbon.

For additional information contact Sheirbon 989-8526 or Glenn Anderson 989-8555.

The 1994 touring Art About Agriculture show will be on display in Condon at the Memorial Hall from now until May 4. Gallery hours are Mondays and Tuesdays by appointment; Wednesdays and Thursdays 12 noon to 2 p.m. and 4 to 6:30 p.m.; Fridays and Saturdays 12 noon to 7 p.m. and Sunday 12 noon to 3 p.m. Arrangements may be made for tours as well.

The paintings, watercolors and fiber arts show is sponsored by the Oregon State University college of Agricultural Sciences. The program is supported by gifts to the E.R. Jackman Foundation and is hosted in Condon by The Greater Condon Arts Association.

The touring show includes work that has been purchased for the college's permanent collection as well as works that received special recognition during the initial show on the OSU campus. Unless already purchased, all work in the show is for sale.

The juried exhibition is open to professional artists from throughout the Pacific Northwest. The goal of the Art About Agriculture program is to promote understanding among diverse groups, explains Debrah Rarick, program coordinator for the college.

Saturday, April 23, Co-Arts will host a reception for the Art About Agriculture show beginning at 8 p.m. There is no charge for any of these events, however, contributions will be accepted. All events are open to the public.
